17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Gifts of Hope

Reading 1	2 Kings 4:42-44 (Elisha: The Multiplication of Loaves)
Reading 2	Ephesians 4:1-6 (Unity in the Mystical Body)
Gospel	John 6:1-15 (Multiplication of the Loaves)
Key	When [the people] were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. (John 6:12-13)
Adults:	When has the generous gift of another offered you hope?
Children:	What loving gift could you give to another person this week?

Deacon Ben's Corner

"What does it mean to say 'Amen' when the priest or extraordinary minister gives me Communion?" We know how Communion works: the priest or extraordinary minister says, "The Body of Christ" and we respond with "Amen." But, what does that response "Amen" really mean?

The Body of Christ (the Eucharist) is the source and summit of our faith. Everything draws its strength and meaning from it and everything is oriented to it. The response "Amen" is an acceptance and an acknowledgement not only of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist, but also the doctrines of the Catholic faith.

That is why, for example, non-Catholics do not receive the Eucharist. You may have wondered this at weddings which are the most common places to witness this type of situation. People often ask, "Well, wouldn't we want everyone to receive Jesus?" This is a great question and it requires a certain perspective to understand the Church's teaching.

Imagine a Catholic priest holding the Body of Christ in front of a non-Catholic and saying, "The Body of Christ." This question is implied to the non-Catholic, "Do you believe in the Catholic Church's doctrine on the Trinity, scripture, sacraments, original sin, morality, the Virgin Mary, ethics, the saints, Catholic Social Teaching, sexuality, the papacy, human nature, etc." It would be incredibly unfair to put a non-Catholic in this type of situation.

In other words, when we respond with "Amen" to "The Body of Christ" we are acknowledging that this is, in fact, the Body and Blood of Jesus and that we are in communion with the Roman Catholic Church.

We all may have to broaden our understanding of what we are really saying when we hear "The Body of Christ." We are accepting the truth of Catholicism in all its fullness. I challenge you this week to take some time and think about the response - "Amen" - when receiving the Eucharist.
