Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

On this 3rd Sunday of Lent we are challenged to see ourselves in the woman at the well. She represents the soul on adventure with the Lord. My article below comes from an interpretation from Archbishop Fulton Sheen.

Notice that the woman first calls Jesus "a Jew" after He asks her for a drink. Then, Jesus says "if you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

She then responds with the title "Sir" as opposed to Jew, "Sir, where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob?" Jesus responds, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst." The woman responds with the title "Sir" for a second time and says, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Jesus responds, "Go call your husband and come back." She replies, "I do not have a husband." Jesus says, "You are right...you have had five husbands. The one now is not your husband." The woman at the well now changes the title again for Jesus, "I can see that you are a prophet." They then discuss worshipping God.

She says, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ." Jesus replies, "I am he, the one speaking with you." The woman then leaves her water jar and tells the whole town about Jesus. She now uses a different title for him and asks everyone, "Could he possibly be the Christ?" She even helps many others to believe that Jesus is "truly the savior of the world."

Her titles for Jesus started with Jew, moved to Sir, then jumped to prophet, then to Christ (Messiah), and to savior of the world. The woman at the well represents the soul journeying with the person of Jesus Christ. He is in fact an ordinary man, a Jew. He is in fact a "Sir" who is to be respected. He is a prophet, a remarkable teacher and preacher who knows the will of God. Yet, He is so much more than these titles. He is also the Christ, the Messiah. He is God. He is the savior of the world.

And, the Bible is remarkable in its use of imagery. The woman left her water jar at the well. She now has a new mission and she's left behind her old ways. We are called to do the same.
 Fr. Ben Daghir
