Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

I'm very proud of our new Holy Spirit Parish website. Like anything, it is a work in progress and will always be.

A website is a living organism. It needs to be constantly updated, improved, and tweaked. It cannot remain stagnant. Even though websites are in the virtual world, they can quickly collect dust. As a 31-year-old, it's incredibly painful to navigate through a website that has collected dust over the years.

I encourage you to spend a few moments looking through the website on your iPhone or laptop. You can find the website here: www.weareholyspirit.com

This website is designed to be engaging and to make searching (for whatever it might be) simple.

In no way is the website to compete with the bulletin. To put this clearly, they both have the same intention - to communicate. If you prefer the bulletin, please keep reading the bulletin. If you prefer not to carry a piece of paper, type www.weareholyspirit.com on your phone and you have everything you need. The website has the bulletin downloaded + much more.

In the upcoming weeks, I will continue to have bulletin articles concerning the website. In particular, I will be asking you for some assistance to make this website better.

Lastly, don't be shy in telling me what you think about the website.

Scripture Reading

3rd Sunday of Lent

Trust and Doubt

Reading 1	Exodus 20:1-17 or 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17 (The Ten Commandments)
Reading 2	1 Corinthians 1:22-25 (The Wisdom and Folly of the Cross)
Gospel	John 2:13-25 (Cleansing of the Temple)
Key	For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jew and foolishness to Gentiles. (1 Corinthians 1:22-23)
Adults	When has the message of the cross seemed absurd to you, and when have you seen its wisdom?
Children	What puzzles you in the gospel stories? Which story makes you the most hopeful?

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."
