Correction: Mass intention at St. Mary Parish on Sat. Feb. 25, at 5 p.m. was for Della & Thomas Barber by Paul Gileot

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Remember prayer, fasting and almsgiving from last week? Today's Gospel presents us with Jesus in the desert. He is fasting for 40 days and 40 nights. And, of course, he is hungry.

One can quickly read this and say, "Well, sure, he is hungry for food in his stomach." Is that interpretation correct though? Is he really hungry for food in his stomach? Or, is he hungry for food of the soul?

The devil tempts him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." Jesus could, in fact, do this. In the Gospels, Jesus turns water into wine, He multiplies loaves and fishes, He performs miraculous healings and calms storms, He walks on water, and He rises from the dead. So, He could turn stones into loaves of bread. He could fill his stomach with food. He could have been doing that the entire time if he wanted.

Yet, He doesn't. Instead, Jesus replies "One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." And, it's the word of God which fills the soul. It's the word of God which ultimately nourishes the human being. The word of God is our real hunger.

Fasting helps us to place the emphasis on our souls as opposed to allowing our stomachs, like that of animals, to control us. Let me be very clear: a Christian who can say no to one's stomach can also say no to many other temptations which is crucial to a healthy spiritual life.
