Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Last week I reflected on the first paragraph of "The Hobbit." We saw that Bilbo preferred the hobbit hole approach to life because of fear.

While Bilbo Baggins is minding his own business in his hobbit hole, he hears a knock on the door. Gandalf, a remarkable wizard, says to Bilbo, "I am looking for someone to share in an adventure that I am arranging, and it's very difficult to find anyone."

How often in life, while we are minding our own business in our little worlds, a unique opportunity arrives at the door of our hearts? (Think of Jesus saying to Simon and Andrew while they were fishing, "Come, follow me.")

What is our first instinct during these encounters? Do we push them away or do we give them a chance?

The person who is consumed in the hobbit hole pushes opportunities away and closes the door on possibilities. Simon and Andrew "immediately dropped their nets" and followed Jesus.

Unfortunately, Bilbo Baggins doesn't have the same response as the Apostles. Bilbo responds to Gandalf's invitation, "We are plain quiet folk and have no use for adventures."

Such is the soul stuck within the self (the hobbit hole). Bilbo avoids the opportunity and the adventure. Yet, something deep within him is slowly starting to be stirred. Will he allow this opportunity to pass him by?

ALPHA 2023

Wednesday, September 13, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Try Alpha! The Alpha Course will be offered again this fall. Alpha is a wonderful opportunity to journey through the foundational teachings of the Christian faith and form community with others. It allows us to discuss the big questions of our faith like, "Who is Jesus? How Can I Pray? How Can I Tell Others? Is There More to Life Than This?" Past guests on Alpha have consistently stated that their experience created a loving relationship with Jesus, strengthened their existing faith, created a newfound understanding of the Holy Spirit, helped them pray and read the Bible, introduced them to new friends, and motivated them to be active in their faith. Alpha is an 11-week course, where each night guests are provided a dinner, listen to a short video presentation, and participate in small group discussions. The course is free of charge and will be from 6:30-8:30 p.m. each week at the Foundry in Reynoldsville. Alpha is available for all parishioners, friends, and family of all faith backgrounds from 18 years old and up. To register or find out more, please visit the link on the parish website under the title "Alpha," or call the parish office. Please use this link or call St. Catherine Parish office to register. <https://tinyurl.com/DRCCAlpha23Signup>

Pipe Organ Concert at St. Catherine

Sunday, September 17, at 2 p.m.

All are welcome to enjoy a concert to celebrate the most recent improvements to the "Historic Hook and Hasting" pipe organ at St. Catherine of Siena Church. Under the direction of Stephen Paul Toney, the concert will feature members of both the Queen of the World Church, St. Marys, and St. Catherine Church with sacred music and organ solos. Stephen Paul has been restoring this magnificent organ, originally from Boston, Mass., for posterity for the past 14 years. It is the instrument he learned to play organ music, he said, and he has a special connection to this organ. The most recent work done to this pipe organ was reinstalling the missing concussion bellows on the great division wind truck. He also restored the reeds on the organ which included the trumpet great division and coropean and oboe on the swell division. Most significantly, the work will bring the speech, or sound, of 1,737 pipes back to their original glory. There is no cost to attend. Please spread the word so many can attend.

Anchored in Hope: Support in Grief

A Grief Support Group will begin Wednesday, October 4, and run for five consecutive Thursdays from 6-7:15 p.m. in St. Catherine's McGivney Hall.
