Deacon Ben's Corner

I have had a few parishioners this summer ask me, "What do you think of the Church?" It is a great question and worth asking. It also leads us to my favorite quote. Pope Saint Paul VI (my role model by the way) wrote, "The Church exists in order to evangelize."

He also stated that the Church doesn't have missions but rather that the Church is mission. So, what do I think of the Church? The Church is a means to an end - Christ established the Church "so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3:16). The Church is not a human institution which solely focuses on worldly demands. Rather, the Church is the bride of Christ - She looks to Him, follows His commands, believes in Him regardless of the opposition seen in the world. I'd like to end this short reflection with the words of St. Boniface (The Apostle to the Germans), "In her voyage across the ocean of this world, the Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon the ship but to keep her on her course." My thoughts on the Church are simply echoes of Pope St. Paul VI and St. Boniface.

Theme-Based Homily Series in Month of July

Throughout the month of July - Msgr. Siefer, Fr. Whiteford, Deacon Dan, and Deacon Daghir will be presenting a theme-based homily series on "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" at both St. Catherine of Siena and St. Michael the Archangel Parishes. The homilies during these Masses will focus on the theme above which is posed as a question, "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" If you are interested in reading the Gospel reading in advance we have placed the Gospel verse here: July 25, (John 6:1-15).
