Disillusioned with the Church?

Have you ever been disillusioned with your faith? Disappointed? Have you ever felt that the church was hypocritical? Did your mom say you had to go to church, but your dad didn't go? "Disillusionment with the Church" will be the topic of the next session facilitated by Dr. Marianne Konior at 11:30 a.m., Sunday, Jan. 22. Sponsored by Faith Formation of our five parishes, all parents, grandparents, guardians and others are invited to attend. It is held in the library at DuBois Central Catholic. It's a topic that we all encounter in ourselves or our families. Free to attend.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Following Jesus

Reading 1	Isaiah 8:23– 9:3 (The Prince of Peace)
Reading 2	1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17 (Factions)
Gospel	Matthew 4:12-23 (Jesus in Capernaum)
Key	Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among people. (Matthew 4:23)
Adults:	To whom could you preach the gospel of Jesus Christ this week with actions rather than words?
Children:	What could you do for someone this week that would tell them something about Jesus?

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Pope St. John Paul II once wrote, "Man's life comes from God; it is his gift, his image and imprint, a sharing in his breath of life. God therefore is the sole Lord of this life: man cannot do with it as he wills." – (Evangelium Vitae, March, 1995).

Life is a gift. None of us had the choice thousands of years ago to say, "You know, I'd really like to exist in Pennsylvania in the year 2023, specifically rural Pennsylvania. In fact, that's precisely what I'll do." Life doesn't work that way.

Life is a gift from God. We find ourselves in this universe at a specific time and place with specific people. No one gave us a manual on how to be human before we entered this world.

We also have been given remarkable gifts, gifts we can often take for granted. We can think, imagine, dream, hope, yearn, reason, predict, and reflect. We can choose, improve, and grow. We can learn new languages, do research, help a friend, help an enemy. We can come to know the truth, travel to places, plan a surprise birthday party, and ultimately love.

We humans can also do so much harm: war, genocide, murder, violence, deception, lie, abuse, all sorts of other sins, and much more.

We have been given a remarkable gift of life. We can embrace it and live up to our potential or we can waste it by abusing the gift that we've been given.

Pope St. John Paul II is right: "God, therefore, is the sole Lord of this life: man cannot do with it as he wills."

We must look to Christ who is the fullness of what it means to be human. Christ gives us the answer to: "Who am I?" and "What is my purpose?" and "Why am I here?" and "What does it mean to be human?"

Fr. Ben Daghir
