Today, World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us that in Baptism we are all called by the Lord to be His missionaries: "You shall be my witnesses: (Acts 1:8). Joining Catholics worldwide this Sunday, we offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to the Pope's missions. When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Pope to provide mission support to catechists, Religious Sisters caring for children and families, children in primary schools and homes for orphaned children and the elderly. Your prayers are treasured, along with financial help offered today.

Honoring our Veterans

On that day, let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us re-consecrate ourselves to the task of promoting and enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain."— 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Veterans Day proclamation.

On the 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month of 1918, bugle calls signaled the 'cease fire' ending the First World War. (The official Armistice was signed earlier that morning.) To those who endured it, WWI was the "Great War", "the War to End All Wars." Tragically, an even greater conflict consumed the world just two decades later.

Today, 104 years after the end of WWI, Americans mark the anniversary of the WWI Armistice as "Veterans Day". In Canada, it is known as Remembrance Day. On this solemn occasion, we honor all those who have served in the military in times of war and peace. Thank you for your service to our nation and the world.

At each of the Masses on Sunday, November 06, we will honor our veterans by extending a special blessing to them as an expression of our gratitude and respect for their sacrifice.

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

What we read and watch matters. In all honesty, what are we currently reading? A literature classic from Dante or Shakespeare or Homer? Social media or the newspaper or the Bible or a magazine or a cookbook or Twitter or Facebook or a history book or a blog? It is extremely healthy to step back from our lives for a moment and analyze what we are actually reading.

The same follows for what we watch on a screen. In all honesty, what are we currently watching? Netflix or Fox News or CNN or the History channel? ESPN or old Western movies or the Discovery channel? Documentaries about World War II or Unsolved Mysteries? Likewise, it is extremely healthy to step back from our lives for a moment and analyze what we are actually reading.

It is so important to step back and analyze our lives.

Then, we can make an adjustment if necessary. We can grow in happiness and continue to learn, to read, and to watch.

Fr. Ben Daghir

Mass of Remembrance

During the month of November, we celebrate All Saints Day and All Souls Day, bringing to mind those who have gone before us in this life. In a special way, we remember our parishioners and family members of parishioners who died between November, 2021, and October 31, 2022. Our annual Mass of Remembrance will be celebrated at St. Michael on Sunday, October 30, at the 9 a.m. Mass, and at St. Catherine on Saturday, Nov. 5, at the 4 p.m. liturgy. Families of those who lost a parishioner or a family member will receive an invitation to these liturgies. We invite the entire faith community to join in this celebration of the lives who have touched us in a special way.

Faith Formation

Did you know? All five parishes participate in one Faith Formation program now. Grades 1-9 are taught on Sundays at DuBois Central Catholic Schools. Grades 6-8 participate in a program used throughout the diocese called Edge from Life Teen. Grades 1-5 use Loyola Press student books in the "Finding God" series, and Grade 9 uses the book "Catholic Faith Handbook for Youth" from St. Mary's Press.

Outreach Packages to Military & College Students

Outreach will again send packages to military & college students away from home. PARENTS: There will be a sign up sheet for their names and addresses in the vestibule. Deadline: Oct. 31. Questions? Email st.mikeoutreach@gmail.com or call Joanne at 814-583-5445.
