Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

In this second Sunday of Lent our Gospel presents us with the transfiguration of the Lord. I would like to focus on this one line from Scripture, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

The disciples were, rightfully so, in shock when they heard from a cloud a voice stating "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The Gospel tells us that the disciples then fell prostrate and "were very much afraid." Mind you, the disciples were grown men and yet they were afraid.

Jesus then walked up to them, touched them, and said "Rise, and do not be afraid."

Are we hiding in a comfort zone due to fear? Is the Lord challenging us to step out in courage?

Notice, the disciples are afraid of God's remarkable power, not something evil. The greatest fears are not always what could go wrong but rather can stem from the sheer power and goodness of God in our lives. In other words, "what is God doing in my life? Am I ready? Am I strong enough?"

"Rise, and do not be afraid" may be the words that we need to hear today. It might not be due to something potentially bad but rather potentially remarkable.

Your Identity in Christ

Our culture is very interested in the journey of discovering individual identity. It seems like everyone is searching for something to tell them who they are, where they belong and how they relate to the world. As our children grow, how do we help our children root their identity in the God of love, the incarnate person of Jesus, and as an important part of the body of Christ?

"How God Sees You. Your Identity in Christ" will be facilitated by Marianne Konior, D.Ed. Free for anyone to attend: 11:30 a.m., Sunday, March 12, 2023 at DuBois Central Catholic, it is hosted by the parishes' Faith Formation program.
