Local Churches' Pastoral Planning

At the invitation of Bishop Persico, members of the pastoral and finance councils of Assumption of BVM, St. Mary, St. Bernard, St. Catherine, and St. Michael convened on May 24 for a presentation concerning the challenges facing our parishes as we prepare for the parish-centered phase of long-range planning introduced throughout the Diocese by the Bishop. Councils discussed elements of the presentation at their individual meetings the following week. A joint meeting of councils from the five parishes is scheduled for Tuesday, June 29, at 6:30 p.m. in DuBois Central Catholic School cafeteria for further discussion about the planning process. A summary of that discussion along with more detailed information regarding the process will be made available to all parishioners following that meeting.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Gift of Peace

Reading 1	Job 38:1, 8-11 (The Lord's Speech to Job)
Reading 2	2 Corinthians 5:14-17 (The Ministry of Reconciliation)
Gospel Key	Mark 4:35-41 (The Storm on the Sea) Jesus said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" (Mark 4:39-40)
Adults:	When has the Lord calmed the stormy seas of your life?
Children:	What fear would you like the Lord to help you overcome?

Deacon Ben's Corner

How I view the diaconate (being a deacon):

I immediately think of St. Lawrence who died in the year 258 in Rome. Lawrence was one of the deacons to Pope Sixtus II. Both Pope Sixtus II and St. Lawrence were martyred by the Roman Emperor Valerian. The death of St. Lawrence provides one of the greatest stories in Christian history.

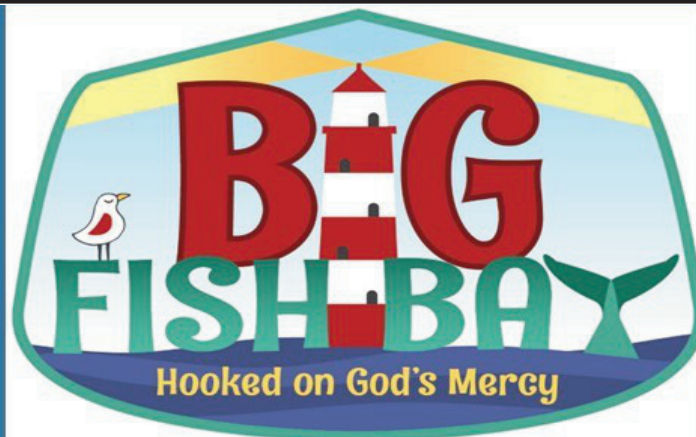

The Romans demanded that Lawrence would take them to the "treasures of the Catholic Church." Of course, the Romans wanted to take the money from the treasury. Lawrence, instead, took the Roman soldiers and guards to the homeless, the widows, the fatherless children, the sick and the lame. He then said, "Here is the treasure of our Church." St. Lawrence was then martyred.

The deacon at a Catholic Mass always prays the intercessions rather than the priest. The intercessions are often prayers for the sick, the dying, etc. because it is the deacon whose office reaches out to the poor, the sick, the disabled. Notice in the St. Lawrence story above – he knew exactly where the poor and the sick were because he served.

The deacon, throughout Church history, has been the one to know the voice of the poor, their struggles, and their needs.

The moment I mistake the real treasure of the Church for anything other than "whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" is the moment that I do not live up to the role of a deacon (Matthew 25:40).
