Looking for family planning that respects your faith, your marriage, your body and is effective? Couples from around the diocese are learning about a way of life that helps them work with God to grow their families or space children. Find studies verifying Natural Family Planning's (NFP) effectiveness, class schedules, and resources for strengthening your marriage through using NFP at www.eriercd.org/chastity.htm or contact the Diocesan Natural Family Planning Coordinator, Cathy, at 814-512-0818.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Sharing Good News

Reading 1	Amos 7:12-15 (Amos called by God to Prophecy)
Reading 2	Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10 (Blessing for Jew and Gentile)
Gospel Key	Mark 6:7-13 (The Mission of the Twelve) He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. (Mark 6:7)
Adults:	What good news of Jesus can you share with others this week?
Children:	What good news of Jesus can you share with others this week?

Deacon Ben's Corner

In the Rite of Ordination for the diaconate I heard these words from Bishop Lawrence Persico during the ordination on May 1, 2021, "Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach." The words are beautiful and are worth unpacking a little more. Notice the verbs: read, believe, teach, and practice. Which of these verbs do you naturally do very well? Maybe you are a fine person and you often help others through virtuous acts (practice) or maybe you just have a knack for clearly explaining the faith to people (teach). Which of these verbs do you need to improve? Maybe you have never read the Gospels (read). Maybe you question the Catholic faith - its teaching on sexuality, economics, or Church structure (believe). I find that these four verbs (read, believe, teach, practice) provide a clear template for us. Where are we strong? Where are we weak? Are we willing to grow? The good news is that these four verbs are like pillars - each one supports the other three. A saint is grounded in all four though.

Theme-Based Homily Series in Month of July

Throughout the month of July - Msgr. Siefer, Fr. Whiteford, Deacon Dan, and Deacon Daghir will be presenting a theme-based homily series on "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" at both St. Catherine of Siena and St. Michael the Archangel Parishes. There are four weekend Masses in July and the homilies during these Masses will focus on the theme above which is posed as a question, "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" If you are interested in reading the Gospel readings in advance we have placed the Gospel verses here: July 18 (Mark 6: 30-34), and July 25 (John 6: 1-15).
