St. Anthony (Praying for Lost Things & Lost People)

St. Anthony of Padua lived from 1195-1231. At a very young age he decided to give up wealth and power in order to join the Augustinians which was a flourishing Order in the Church at that time. A few years later he was inspired by St. Francis and his followers so St. Anthony entered the Franciscan Order and started preaching to a people called the Moors.

After a brief illness Anthony returned to Italy and spent his time in a small house praying and studying the Sacred Scriptures. Anthony lived a very simple life as a Franciscan. He was an outstanding scholar and preacher of the Bible and all regarded him as a holy person who gave up everything to follow Christ.

We all know St. Anthony as the one to whom we ask to help us find things that are lost. I am sure that most if not all of us at one time or another has asked St. Anthony to help us find lost items we were diligently looking for . . . and, sure enough we found them.

In a like manner, my brothers and sisters, our Gospel Reading from Luke 15 is about things and a person that were lost but then they were found. In the parable about the lost sheep, the shepherd goes in search and eventually finds his lost sheep and returns joyfully.

In the next parable about the lost coin, the woman looks for it and then in finding it, "she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost." (Lk 15:9)

Finally, we hear about the dramatic story of the prodigal son who returns to his father's house in dire need. We see how his needs caused him to be found by his father who "while he was still a long way off ... caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion." (Lk15:20) — We know the rest of the story. There was a huge celebration because the lost son was found.

My brothers and sisters, we can be happy and satisfied when we find things that we had lost, especially if we ask for St. Anthony's help. Let us though rejoice when we have found our way back to our Loving, Heavenly Father after being lost and feel His Mercy and Compassion, through prayer, confession and through another person who loves us enough to offer mercy.

God Bless, Father Mark
