Baptismal Training Sessions for January 2021

Jan 20 7:00 pm Holy Rosary, Johnsonburg 965-2819

Confirmation classes resume on Sunday, January 24 at 10:30 in the social hall.

Faith Formation Classes are scheduled to begin in-person on Sunday, February 14. A more detailed letter has been mailed to the parents.

St. Joseph Church Adult Faith Formation classes will be every Monday until February 8 after the 8:30 a.m. Mass and again at 6:30 p.m. All classes will be held in the social hall. Join us in these classes about Mary—A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother to experience the actual locations where Mary lived. Last week's classes learned about the early life of Mary in Nazareth and the meaning of the Annunciation.
Please join us as we continue to follow this Biblical walk with our Blessed Mother. This Monday's class will be about the Visitation of the Blessed Mother to Elizabeth.

CSA reminder: Your final pledges are due by January 26. If you haven't made a pledge for this past campaign and still would like to participate, please pay in full the pledged amount you would like to donate.

Next weekend January 23-24 is "Help Spread the Faith" campaign. This campaign will help ensure we can continue to make these cost-free resources available to all parishioners throughout the diocese.

The church office will be closed Monday, January 18 in observance of Martin Luther King Day.

Every other pew is designated for seating at Mass.

Father Mark is available to hear Confessions during office hours. Call for an appointment at 814-787-4151 #4

St. Joseph Website

Saturday and Sunday Masses at our church have resumed. Mass can be viewed at any time on the St. Joseph website if you do not wish to be at a public Mass yet. Please join us in participating and in celebration of Mass at our website stjosephforce.org

Pray for Vocations

On occasion at Mass during the Universal Prayers, we hear to pray for vocations with the understanding and intention that it is important to the faithful commitment of Marriage, Priesthood, Religious Life, the Diaconate and single life. My focus in this message is the calling to the priesthood.

I remember when studying in seminary and preparing for the priesthood, there were many seminarians who came from all walks of life and work experiences. Some had worked in the business world, some had engineering experiences in a company, some had taught in secondary schools and universities and some seminarians had served in the armed forces.
Many had come from colleges as was my experience.
I was a music major my first three years in college and then I changed my major to communications when I entered college seminary.

Jesus's calling to serve Him with our gifts, talents, education and job experiences is all used for the building up of God's Kingdom on earth here and now. Each one of us seminarians at that time and today first heard God calling us to a relationship with Him and then we responded to follow Him in going to seminary in order to prepare for the priesthood.

Similarly, in this weekend's Gospel we hear about Jesus calling His first disciples who then became His Apostles. They like us were called from different jobs and work settings to leave what they were doing and follow Jesus. We hear of Andrew and Simon Peter who were brothers and fishermen. Jesus was initiating a relationship with them and from this they learned about Jesus and the Kingdom that He was bringing about. It was then, only after being schooled by Jesus, could they go out and proclaim the Good News.

I offer this prayer with you right now for vocations...

Jesus our Lord and Savior, As you had called Your first Disciples to come and follow You, help all of us to say 'yes' to Your invitation and to be faithful to our calling. Please, Jesus, continue to call men to serve You in the Priesthood.

Pray for vocations.

God Bless,
Father Mark
