13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 30, 2019

On the Cheap: It never works. If we do something on the cheap, we end up cheating someone, usually ourselves. Wallpaper won't mask the deep crack in the plaster. Cramming might get us past the test, but we won't remember much the day after. A long report won't make up for a bad one. Today a real, true, genuine call awaits a response in kind. No cheating.

There was, perhaps, great significance in the fact that Jesus had "nowhere to rest his head", that he was born in a stable outside of an established inn. Ultimately he would work from outside the recognized religious and political systems of his day. He would also spend his time ministering to "outsiders", the tax collectors, the prostitutes, the lame and the blind. And looking beyond his own death, he told us that we would find him among those outside the mainstream of life. Jesus surely found the "outside" to be an excellent vantage point for work and vision and ministry. The three individuals who were intent on following Jesus were rebuffed because none of them were willing to stand outside the norms and patterns and customs of their day. Had they been willing, they would have had the vantage point necessary not only to be of service to God, but to see what is deserving of time and attention and importance.

1. What are some other "angles of vision" available to an outsider?

Rosary Quote: The Rosary is a priceless treasure inspired by God.~by St. Louis De Monfort

A warm welcome to all former Parishioners, St. Joseph Alumni, relatives, family, friends and all visitors who are attending our 80th Annual4th of July Celebration this week. Thank you for coming and spending your holiday with us.

4th of July Facebook Page: Please visit the 4th of July Facebook page at http://www.facebook.com/stjoseph4thofjuly (@stjoseph4thofjuly) and be sure to like us to receive more updates through the season.

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus. Here is a petition to Jesus Christ: Lord Jesus Christ, who camest down from heaven to earth from the bosom of the Father, and didst shed Thy Precious Blood for the remission of our sins: we humbly beseech Thee, that in the day of judgement we may deserve to hear, standing at Thy right hand: "Come, ye blessed." Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

I AM THE TRUTH: the One who came to set you free. AS the Holy Spirit controls your mind and actions more fully, you become free in Me. You are increasingly released to become the one I created you to be. This is a work that I do in you as you yield to My Spirit. I can do My best handiwork when you sit in the stillness of My Presence, focusing your entire being on Me.

Let My thoughts burst freely upon your consciousness, stimulating abundant life. I am the Way the Truth and the Life. As you follow Me, I lead you along paths of newness: ways you have never imagined. Don't worry about that is on the road up ahead. I want you to find your security in knowing Me, the One who died to set you free.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, July 7, 2019

(Lec. 102)

I. Isaiah 66:10-14c
II. Galatians 6:14-18
III. Luke 10:1-12, 17-20, or 10:1-9

Liturgy of the Word

The prophet Isaiah instructs us to rejoice because the Lord assures us he will extend prosperity and comfort.

In Paul's Letter to the Galatians, he writes that the cross of Jesus Christ has brought about a new creation, one which will bring peace and mercy to those who follow him.

Luke's Gospel tells of Christ appointing and sending seventy-two followers out in pairs - like lambs among wolves - with instructions on how to labor in the field and proclaim the kingdom of God.
