

From the Pastor's Desk

I had a conversation with a friend from my high school days who told me that it was all my fault. During an Intercom Retreat over Halloween weekend 1971 that we both were on, we were encouraged to bring a non-Catholic friend, also on the retreat, to communion so that he/she could make a "spiritual communion" with us. She was my non-Catholic friend that I brought to communion with me. She later decided that she would like to receive the Eucharist and converted to Catholicism. But the seed of that change was the "spiritual communion" from the Intercom.

With the suspension of public Masses, we are encouraged to make a spiritual communion. There are even prayers available to help us in that effort.

However, I would like to point out that we are always in the presence of God. While the sacramental encounter with the Lord in the Eucharist is a powerful means of uniting with the Lord, it is not the only way. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that God works through the sacraments but is not limited to working through the sacraments.

With that in mind I might suggest that for the duration of this suspension we might seek out in our lives other ways God might be working in them. This might allow us to find some solidarity with other people throughout the world who are not as privileged as we are to receive the Body and Blood on a regular basis. I'm thinking of the people of missionary lands and areas like the Amazon where people might go months without any sacraments being celebrated. Just a thought.

The winner of week #1 drawing of the Saint Joseph Catholic School Cash raffle was Robert Richardson. Congratulations!

From St. Joseph Parish: In this time of uncertainty when our routine of worshiping on Sunday is suspended, we are challenged to keep God the focus of our days. Let us allow this time for God's grace to flow through us. It is at this moment our faith is most needed. St. Joseph Church will be opened throughout the day for visits and individual prayer. It is recommended that you maintain a safe distance (6 feet) from others who may be praying at the same time. Fr. Rick will continue to hear confession from 4:30-5:15pm on Saturdays. Anointing of the Sick in urgent cases is available by calling the parish office.

In an effort to keep you connected with your church community in these trying times, Fr. Rick will try to live stream Mass everyday on the Saint Joseph Catholic Church Facebook page. This will be posted so you can view Mass at your convenience.

A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

*My Jesus
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive
You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*
