

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

At the recent Liturgy Committee meeting we discussed the two suggestions from our suggestion boxes. The first deals with moving the statues of Joseph and Mary from their present location in the walkway to the low landings on either side of the altar near the archways. While the initial suggestion sounds easy enough to do, the logistics of securing the statues and creating a suitable background are certainly more difficult. The statues in the walkway are very nicely presented and lit. We would have a difficult time replicating that presentation on the landings. If we consider the church building as a whole, we will find that a statue of St. Joseph is beautifully presented just a few feet from the landing, in what I like to think of, the grotto. On the other side of the church we have the Mother's Chapel which contains 4 wonderful stained-glass windows of Mary under different titles, a Pieta statue directly behind the altar, and an icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Because of these reasons we will table the move until another time.

The second suggestion was to delay the beginning of the communion hymn at Mass until after the priest has received communion. The celebration of Mass is governed by the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM). The GIRM specifies areas such as silence at Mass, standing, kneeling or sitting, etc. According to the GIRM the singing of the communion song is begun while the priest is receiving communion. The purpose for this is to express the spiritual union of the communicants (including the priest) by means of the unity of voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out the communitarian character of the procession to receive the Eucharist. The singing is prolonged for as long as the Sacrament is being administered to the faithful. In other words, what we do presently at Mass is to follow the procedure as put forth by the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

 SEAT OF WISDOM: MY EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT
The Seat of Wisdom, is now complete. In Roman Catholic tradition, Seat of Wisdom is a devotional title to Mary. It refers to her status as being the vessel in which Jesus was born. This reference became part of my project so that parishioners could have a place to reflect, pray, and where they knew that Mary and Jesus are present. Thank you to everyone who contributed to my project and those who guided me through the process. God Bless! -Owen Strandberg

BAPTISM Through the waters of Baptism we at Saint Joseph Parish welcome Anika Rose Scutella into our community of faith in Jesus Christ. Anika is the daughter of Jeff and Stephanie Scutella, granddaughter of Bruce and Christa Williams and little sister to Eliza and Julia.
