The Most Holy Body
and Blood of Christ

We have been given a deep and rich pair of symbols to express the fullness of Jesus' self-gift on the cross. In its celebration of the Eucharist, the Church has always preserved the duality of these symbols, since the sacrifice of Christ would not have been possible without both blood and body. So, too, is it for us who are sent from the eucharistic celebration. We are not merely "Christ-ed" bodies in the world; we need to be the very Blood of Christ coursing through the veins of daily life at home, in the workplace, at school—wherever the Spirit leads us and guides us. As we pray "Lord, send your Spirit on these gifts," we must also pray that the same Spirit is sent upon us through the thanksgiving of our Eucharist, so we may become Body—and Blood—for the life of the world.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ:

What separates Catholics from other Christians is our fundamental belief in the Real Presence of the Eucharist. Today, we focus on that belief and pause to express our deepest appreciation for the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus present and available to us under the form of Blessed Bread and Wine. It is important that we take time to develop a personal relationship with Jesus, call Him by Name, come into His Presence and pause to express our appreciation for His divine Presence.

We are not better however we are accountable to Jesus for the life we live. Let us live as signs of His Presence, let us receive Christ daily at Eucharist, let us strive to witness the Gospel.

Fr. Jim

~ Our Family Corner ~

Children

"While they were eating...Jesus said the blessing."
 (Mark 4:22) What happens when your family eats together? Presumably, you start with a blessing of the food, but what happens during the meal? You may recount the day, there may be laughter, or complaining. Hopefully, there are no phones present.
 Let it be a time to be present to each other.

Marriage

What can a tree teach you about marriage? "It shall put forth branches and bear fruit." (Ezekiel 17:23) Some trees grow naturally. Some need pruning to become their best selves. Can you spend some time together today enjoying and learning from a tree?
