Happy Father's Day! In a special way we welcome all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and all father figures with us today. This day is just one occasion for us to say thank you for all that you do for us throughout the entire year.

This week is our annual Emmaus Gathering of priests and deacons at St. Vincent College in Latrobe. It is always a good time to get away and spend time with our bishop, brother priests and deacons. Since Fr. Nick, Fr. Jason and I will be attending the gathering, it is necessary to adjust the Mass schedule for this week. Please check the bulletin for the changes in the Mass schedule. There will be Mass on Monday and Friday at 8:00 am. We will have a Communion Service on Wednesday at 8:00 am. Please keep our bishop, priests and deacons in your prayers as we gather for these days of prayer, study and relaxation.

Today, (Sunday) is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We will have a Eucharistic procession at St. Peter Cathedral beginning at 1 PM on that date. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed immediately following the 11 AM mass. Bishop Persico invites us the parishioners of St. Lawrence and St. Philip to participate in this day. At 1 PM the procession with the Blessed Sacrament around the neighborhood will begin and conclude at the Cathedral with benediction. Please consider participating in this beautiful prayer. I would love to see parishioners from St. Lawrence and St. Philip at this beautiful procession.

Fr. Marc Solomon stopped to see both St. Lawrence and St. Philip churches this week and to drop off some of his belongings. He is very excited about coming to Albion and Crossingville and looks forward to getting to know all of you. He plans to move in on Tuesday, July 5 so he can be ready to begin on Wednesday, July 6.

We had such a good turnout at our Memorial Day Mass at St. James Cemetery, we are going to have Mass there on the Fourth of July. Mass will begin at 10:00 am on the Fourth of July. I am looking forward to seeing you on the fourth!

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This Sunday, we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, Latin for "Body of Christ." The feast originated in France in the 13th century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast calls us to celebrate the Body of Christ present in the Holy Eucharist and the Church.

I always enjoy the profound and inspired words of the Saints. So, I thought it would be interesting to look at what some of the Saints thought and wrote about the Eucharist. Here are a few examples from a recent Catholic New Agency (CNA) article.

St. Thomas Aquinas: "The Eucharist is the sacrament of love: it signifies love, it produces love. The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life."

St. Francis de Sales: "When the bee has gathered the dew of heaven and the earth's sweetest nectar from the flowers, it turns it into honey, then hastens to its hive. In the same way, the priest, having taken from the altar the Son of God (who is as the dew from heaven, and true son of Mary, flower of our humanity), gives him to you as delicious food."

St. John Chrysostom: "It is not the man who is responsible for the offerings as they become Christ's Body and Blood; it is Christ Himself who was crucified for us. The standing figure belongs to the priest who speaks these words. The power and the grace belong to God. 'This is My Body,' he says. And these words transform the offerings."

St. Francis of Assisi: "O sublime humility! O humble sublimity! That the Lord of the whole universe, God and the Son of God, should humble himself like this and hide under the form of a little bread, for our salvation."

St. Maximilian Kolbe: "If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion."

St. Pio of Pietrelcina: "A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament."

Another quote from CNA says: "Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others."

God's Peace.

Sacrificial Giving For The Weekend Of June 11th & 12th

Weekly Offertory Budget Goal
$ 3,750.00

(Updated as per last fiscal years expenses.)

Amount Collected $ 2,288.00

Because St. Philip is St. Lawrence's Mission Church, we are really one church. Therefore, we have combined both parish's General Accounts together, and both parish's Mass Accounts together. This enables us to more easily support and take care of each other, as now, all of our bills will be paid out of one account.

Please make future checks out to St. Lawrence Church to be depositing into our one account.

St. James Cemetery will still have it's own separate General Fund Account, as it is it's own entity.
