THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

Six or seven months ago we celebrated the Feast of All Saints. What a wonderful treasury in our heritage is the communion of saints. Today we focus on the earliest saints named by the Church: the disciples of the Lord. The choosing of Matthias, as recounted in today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, is a delightful story of how the early church responded to the needs of the growing community. Statistics show that membership in the Catholic Church has been growing steadily in the last several years. Many are responding to the call of the Lord and entering the initiation process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

LOOKING TOWARD PENTECOST

Through the centuries millions have responded to God's call to ministry, many of them named as saints by the Church. These saints are models for us, since many of them led ordinary lives yet always kept their focus on the Lord Jesus. As we stand at the threshold of the feast of Pentecost, we look toward a new Pentecost, a time of renewal in the Church, in our parish communities, and in the hearts of all the faithful. We, too, are called by God to keep our actions focused on the Lord. As we prepare to celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, let us pray for those who have responded to God's call. Let us also pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to inspire us to renewal, reconciliation, and peace.

 * Knights of Columbus will be preparing the meal

Dear Friends in Christ:

Planned or surprised, when a woman discovers she is 'with child' she begins a personal ' journey of faith.' She is 'called' with a true vocation – vocalization by God to participate in the progressive evolution of human life within her. Try as they might, men 'just don't get it.' A woman is irrevocably changed biologically, psychologically, spiritually, socially in many ways similar to other women who have borne children, but also uniquely in her own personal response. It is a true calling, a true intermingling of lives, a true participation in the creation of a special human being. And she, too, is co-created in the process.

Mothers' Day is a time for us to respond as a culture in saying "Thank you." Beyond the sentimentality is a genuine feeling of gratitude for the gift of life, for the love and teaching experiences and for the freedom to make creative and personal choices with our lives. The journey of life is an adventure that without your personal choice and commitment we would not have been able to say "Thank you." As the angel said to Mary, "The Lord is with you; blessed are you among women..."

Fr. Jim

Fr. Pete: "Remember Mary doing the laundry and pleasing God where she was."

Working Volunteers: We are welcoming people who would respond to our need for Funeral Reception preparation and serving to help grieving families of deceased parish members. Initial discussion meeting will be on Thursday, May 17 at 11:00 in St. Lawrence Center. A second resource that will be very helpful is to generate a practical list of caterers who you know to be of good quality. We will contact each suggested business to secure a list of prices, products, details of contracting and references to make known to groups that normally have catered at St. Lawrence or who wish to have special events at our site. If you have any recommendations and are not able to participate in the initial discussion on Thursday morning, please call Renae at the office or drop a note into the collection basket to get our attention in advance. Thank you very much. Transitioning the St. Lawrence Center's reception service into a parish ministry of hospitality will provide good quality food service, caring outreach to people in difficult circumstances as well as celebration gatherings of guests and parish members alike.

Fr. Jim
