CALLED TO SERVE

How, and whom, are you called to serve? Some of us are called into service professions, such as teaching or nursing. But everyone has opportunities to serve every day. Among our families and friends and in our neighborhoods there are people whose needs we can recognize and respond to. In the busy work day we can notice when a customer or coworker could use some assistance, compassion, or encouragement. Most of all, we are called to serve those who are carrying the heavy burdens of poverty, illness, and oppression.

There are lots of ways to serve those in need. But however we are called to serve, we are to do it in a spirit of humility and respect, knowing that it is an honor to serve as Jesus served.

Praying with a Purpose

___

Please contact Cathy Wojtecki 756-5961, Norma Jafko 756-3889, or Jim Pellegrino, to add a prayer request.

> Among those we are praying for...

Kylie Allen-Kulyk, Dennis Melquist, Jim and Julia Zurinsky, Robert Stewart, Doug Sweet, Gabe Sobina and his family, Jeanette Meeker, Judy Pry, Henry Gilbet, Ron Salisbury, Rachel Graham, Tony Jantosik and Chris Balogh Dear Friends in Christ:

All Saints' Day Celebration recognizes those many souls who 'dwell in the house of the Lord' as well as those many holy ones who walk among us in this world as well. Recognize the goodness in each other and encourage it with gratitude as you also imitate it by making better choices in your own life as well. There are, indeed, saints among us.

When we pray to the Saints in Heaven to intercede on our behalf, that is a valuable devotion. It connects us spiritually with other human beings who have entered into eternal life with the fullness of God's Presence. They are role models for us to follow. They are signs to us that we are on a journey of life and love. In a world with so many distractions as ours, we need to have reminders to encourage us to be faithful. We need to have role models to look up to. That is part of our strength, not weakness. We are not alone in recognizing, facing and overcoming evil temptations in our lives. Be hopeful and helpful as well.

All Souls' Day Celebration recognizes that there are many souls who have fell short and who need prayerful intercessions and sacrifices so they can be cleansed and able to enter into the fullness of God's Presence. Pray for their forgiveness and offer sacrifices for your deceased relatives and friends who may benefit from your devotions as will you. We are all part of the community of humankind that Jesus taught the Gospel, sacrificed his life on the cross so that we would be able to be forgiven and overcome evil in our lives in order to be able to enter into the full Presence of God for eternity.

All Saints' and All Souls' Celebration go hand in hand to help us in the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, to deeply appreciate the importance of our lives as a sacred gift from God. Prayer is a very important devotional practice for faithful people to enjoy. Communicate to God with, in and through the souls of those who have gone before us and who dwell with us in the broad community of faith. We are not alone! We are connected with millions and millions of souls in a spiritually strong life of faith, hope and love! Be inspired, and know with absolute conviction that the power of evil cannot prevail in the hearts of those who invoke the saints and who follow their examples of devotion and holiness in ministry.
