BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO HAVE NOT SEEN AND HAVE BELIEVED

John's Gospel today places us with the disciples, behind a locked door, hiding, whimpering, fearful. Yet Jesus Christ comes to us, because Jesus knows us better than we know ourselves. He knows that we have the ability to spread the word of salvation, to be the church of Christ on earth. So he comes and bestows on us the great power of the Holy Spirit, the power that will build the church, the power that will spread the word. But not everyone was there, not everyone believes. Thomas needs more; he needs concrete proof. So Jesus comes back, because Thomas needs to see him. Jesus loves Thomas, and invites him to deepen his faith. So, too, Jesus Christ invites all of us to a deeper faith. Some of us may need miracles or signs and wonders to believe. But many of us have been given the gift of faith without the need to see for ourselves. Let us help each other come to deeper faith in the resurrected Lord.

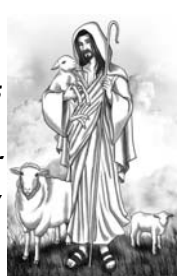

We Celebrate and Rejoice

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ:

Divine Mercy Sunday – focuses our attention on the overriding intention of God to be a source of life, love and forgiveness. Because of His mercy we are forgiven and restored to living in God’s Divine Grace. Because of Jesus’ sacrifice we are forgiven and welcomed to experience Divine Love and Healing. Because of the Indwelling of the Holy Spirit, we are prompted in conscience to say “Yes!” and to live life with a meaning that is profound and realistic...and have an invitation to living eternally in heaven.

Choose to accept these sensitive and sincere invitations!

Prayerfully transform ‘purposeless painful experiences into Redemptive Suffering gifts of prayer for the sake of others.’ Pray for healing within our Church. Make a personal sacrifice for the sake of victims of abuse to become free of their painful experiences. Pray for ecclesiastical justice and civil justice that perpetrators receive the ‘just consequences’ of their serious wrongdoing, seek counseling and reconciliation with God and the Community of Faith, do adequate penance and make amends for their misbehaviors.

Divine Mercy is a powerful force for justice, healing and purgation. May Divine Mercy cleanse our Church, help us to ‘reset’ our faith, mission and witness to reflect the Gospel of Christ. By God’s Divine Grace and Divine Mercy, may we truly come together as People of God to heal from within and to extend our mission externally to express the integrity of our faith, hope and love as a welcoming gesture to inspire others to commit to the truth of God’s revelation.
