Thank you to Fr. Jason Mitchell for covering the morning Masses this weekend in Crossingville and Albion and Fr. Nick Rouch for covering the Saturday evening Mass. Fr. Nick was called to cover the Sunday Masses in Crown and Marienville and Fr. Jason was kind enough to cover the Sunday morning Masses while I cover the Masses at the Cathedral. As you can see, we definitely need to pray for more vocations to the priesthood. As the number of priests decrease it becomes more difficult to cover all the Masses throughout the diocese.

Special thanks to Fr. Larry Richards and the parishioners from St. Joseph/Bread of Life Community for donating the Easter Candle to St. Philip Church. Unfortunately, the Easter Candle we ordered for St. Philip is still on back order. I guess the supply chain crisis even affects church supplies!

Mark your calendars-Mass on Memorial Day, May 30th, will be at 10 AM at Saint James Cemetery. I had a Committal Service this past week in the Chapel and was impressed with how beautiful the chapel and cemetery are. We are truly blessed to have such a beautiful parish cemetery. Like I said before, my great grandmother is buried in our cemetery. My mother and I would make several trips during the summer to visit her grave. We always commented on how well kept the cemetery was. Looking forward to seeing you at Mass on Memorial Day.

St. Philip is having their Trash and Treasure sale on Thursday, Friday and Saturday May 26th, 27th, and 28th. This is a great way to support our brothers and sisters at St. Philip. More information can be found on the flier located on the bulletin board in church.

I want to remind everyone that on Friday, May 27th our native son Christopher Wheeler will be ordained a priest. Christopher will have his Mass of Thanksgiving here at St. Lawrence on Sunday, May 29th, at 10:00 am followed by a reception in the Parish Center. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. How blessed we are to have a vocation from our parish.

Deacon's Corner

May 15, 2022

On Sundays during the Easter Season and most daily Masses, the first reading comes from the Acts of the Apostles. Since we are spending so much time reading from Acts, I thought it would be particularly relevant to look at this book of the Bible in greater detail.

The earliest tradition of the Church attributes this inspired book to Luke, the same writer as the Gospel of Luke. Luke most likely wrote his Gospel by the end of 62 A.D. and Acts of the Apostles between 62 and 64 A.D. Acts is Luke's presentation of biblical history, describing how the salvation promise to Israel in the Old Testament was accomplished by Jesus and has now under the Holy Spirit been extended to the Gentiles. It is a wonderful story that covers a large part of the origins of Christianity (Acts 11:26 – where it is recorded that the disciples of Jesus Christ were first called Christians) and the early Church.

Furthermore, Acts provides a broad survey of the Church's development from the Resurrection of Jesus to Paul's first Roman imprisonment, which is the point at which the book ends. The first half of Acts focuses on the discipleship of Peter and the second half focuses on the conversion and missionary journeys of Paul. The travels of Peter and Paul are, in reality, the travels of the Word of God as it spreads from Jerusalem to Rome, the capital of the civilized work of Luke's day.

According to an article from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), there are five principal divisions of the Acts of the Apostles:

1. The Preparation for the Christian Mission (Acts 1:1 – 2:13)
2. The Mission in Jerusalem (Acts 2:14 – 8:3)
3. The Mission in Judea and Samaria (Acts 8:4 – 9:43)
4. The Inauguration of the Gentile Mission (Acts 10:1 – 15:35)
5. The Mission of Paul to the Ends of the Earth (Acts 15:36 – 28:31)

I hope this background on the Acts of the Apostles has provided some insight into the Mass readings. As we look at Acts, you should be able to enjoy the unfolding story of the early Church. The more we learn about and study Scripture, the more we know about our Catholic Faith.

Have a very blessed and faith-filled week.

Knights of Columbus Baby Bottle Fundraiser & Country Fair

Country Fair is participating in the Knights of Columbus Baby Bottle fundraiser. The Country Fair's in our area have 1-2 pumps clearly marked "Pump for Charity" specifically for donations. From now until 10/31/22, two cents a gallon will be donated to five charities selected by Country Fair that will share in the money collected. The Women's Care Center's funding for the ultrasound van is one of them! Please patronize Country Fair as often as possible and watch for the specially marked pump. If you purchase a Country Fair gas card, it gives you a discount at the pump of anywhere from five to ten cents off per gallon. With gas prices as high as they are, every little bit helps, and it provides an additional incentive to frequent them.

Christopher Wheeler's Mass of Thanksgiving will be on Sunday, May 29th at 10:00 am.

There will be a reception following at the Parish Center.

Please come and rejoice and celebrate
as one of our own parish family members, celebrates his first Mass as a newly ordained priest.

A Prayer for Bishops, Priests and Deacons

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit
the whole body of the Church is sanctified and governed, mercifully hear our humble supplications for all bishops,
priests and deacons; that by the gift of your grace,
all, in their various appointments,
may faithfully serve you
and have the strength to be firm witnesses of the Gospel to the world. Amen.
