Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHAT ARE BEATITUDES?

What is Jesus offering us today? They are called the “Beatitudes”—but what do they mean? There are no easy answers. Some say they are unattainable ideals, put before us as challenges. Others say they are only for a spiritual elite: the saints. Others would “translate” them into political slogans. One popular television personality called them the “Be Attitudes,” subtly presenting them as optimistic, vaguely New-Age ideas.

Jesus does not burden his disciples with a system that counsels us to grit our teeth and endure. Instead, he places us in the midst of the real world and its conflicts, and he promises us a reward. Righteousness will be satisfied and merciful action will result in mercy extended toward us. As with Zephaniah, Jesus links justice and humility. We must be pure in order to direct ourselves and help others.

A WAY OF LIFE, NOT A PROGRAM

Most modern ideologies promise peace and justice and happiness. Many also require violence against the so-called “enemies” of justice and peace. They must use force and violence, of course, only in order to “make” people good.

Those are not the teachings of Jesus. This New Law is promulgated on a peaceful hillside in Galilee, not on the slopes of a pulsing volcano in the desert. How surprisingly God works, calling the weak to be heroic, calling us to acknowledge our shame in order to overcome our willfulness and pride. He asks us not to tame the universe, but to tame ourselves. History and our own experience have shown this to be a much more difficult task.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ:

As we celebrate the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus responded to the many who came out to him or who were brought out to him to have their infirmities healed. His role was to 'preach the Gospel' yet he was forced to heal the sick. There were a lot of crippled, handicapped folks around the communities. Disease was thought to be a physical ailment for sin in the past life of the individual or some male in his past. This Old Testament teaching appeared to be confirmed over and over.

Yet, Jesus healed the individuals with a word, with a gesture of acceptance that demonstrated the individual's moment of healing. The conversion of individuals was a result of Jesus' new Gospel. The Old Testament was filled with punishment, disease, punishment for evil. The New Testament is filled with healing, wholeness and a reward of blessing as a sign of forgiveness. Let us be among those who ask for wholeness and the Newness of Life, protected by God's Grace.

Fr. Jim

The 2021 Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted throughout our diocese on February 14.

The CSA is the main source of support for projects and services of the diocese which serve parishes and the wider community in northwestern Pennsylvania.
Our diocese does the work of Christ and needs your help to continue this important work.
