Deacon's Corner

April 24, 2022

The Easter Season and Spring bring the promises of new life. We see the signs of new life everywhere, the trees starting to bud, flowers just beginning to bloom, and the songs of the birds. The resurrection of Christ should help us remember that we have two natures, a physical and a divine. God created each one of us to live in eternity. Our lives on Earth are just the preparation for eternal life in the presence of God our Father. We will all experience suffering, pain, and sorrow as we pass through our mortal life.

This is reflected in St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 8:18,

"I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us."

Likewise, Psalm 30:5, which says, "Weeping may last for the night, but joy comes with the morning," we are reminded that joy follows sadness.

The sadness of Good Friday leads to the overwhelming joy of Easter. The joys of Easter are the many ways Father Jim touched our lives as a priest, pastor, and friend. We will rise when Jesus calls us by name.

All God's Blessing this Easter season as we remember that Christ died and rose from the dead to save every one of us from death.

Deacon Paul

Let us pray for Heidi Hosey-McGurk who passed away on April 12th, and for Fr. Jim Kennelley, who passed away on April 14th.

May God give comfort to their families and friends, and may their souls rest in peace.

Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift of mercy and love given through Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. As Pope John Paul II stated, "Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified."

In praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, we offer the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus, which unites our intentions to the sacrifice of the Mass. In other words, the Divine Mercy Chaplet is like an act of Spiritual Communion. Through this chaplet, we obtain forgiveness and intercede for the salvation of souls.
