From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ:

I read an article that complained about firecrackers and explosives being in short supply – and what are we going to do about the 4th of July! Then I went to stores in the area and saw jars of cash donations for fireworks. Plus about 3 weeks ago some idiot was blasting fireworks about 9:00 pm on a Saturday night waking the dead and stirring the dogs. I don't like fireworks, never did and never will!

Today is the 4th of July. We should remember the many people who suffered for our freedom. The celebration is for the signing of the Declaration of Independence that needed human blood to spill and a war to win in order for us to become a free people. We paid the price.

Today, other cultural groups are struggling for freedom within our country to experience the same freedoms. It would be in the spirit of the Fourth of July for us to reach out and help them achieve freedom and independence and dignity. Fireworks doesn't do that, friendliness, supportive cultural integration does. Be bold. Reach out to people from the LGBTQ community, minorities, let them know their human worth, even if you disagree with their lifestyle. Be that flash in the pan that lights up their lives rather than a firework or explosion that merely lights up the sky with anonymous and contradictory messages.

Deacon's Corner

July 4, 2021

This weekend we celebrate the 4th of July. It is considered the height of the summer session. Summer has just really begun, and we have at least 2-1/2 months more to enjoy the warm sun and many summer activities. This is an excellent opportunity to get outdoors and enjoy the many creations and gifts from God. Maybe a quiet, warm evening at Presque Isle, some biking, a summer sport, a walk with the dog, camping, or just sitting outdoors at a family picnic.

I saw a statistic that Americans spend an average of 93% of their time inside. That leads to very little time spent outdoors. But there are so many incredible physical and spiritual benefits when you head outside. When I have spent time outside, like on a camping trip, I am reminded of the complexity and beauty of nature found in so many things – bird songs, wildflowers, trees, fish, and even bugs to name just a few.

Many saints had a great love for the outdoors. The first one that comes to mind is Saint Francis of Assisi. He saw a strong bond between himself and the environment, inviting all of nature to give glory to God. Francis saw in even the smallest creatures a reflection of God. More recently, Saint John Paul II would go hiking, skiing, and kayaking with groups of friends as a priest, bishop, cardinal, and pope. He would even sneak out of the Vatican to ski and did this quite a few times.

This weekend and the rest of the summer, try to get outside and enjoy the glory of God's creations. Spend some quiet time just looking and listening.

~ Our Family Corner ~

Family

Today's gospel is so familiar, it hurts! The home town folks couldn't accept the presence of God in Jesus. After all, they had watched him grow up. We can easily make the same mistake if we don't see God present in the ordinary members of our family. "The Lord be with you" is a statement of fact. Believe it.
