From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends:

The Readings and prayers in Mass today recollect the special relationship of love in human connections. A special permanent relationship between a man and a woman, destined for a lifetime, is set aside to personally live our interpersonal love, commitment and special uniqueness, Marriage. Our Gospel states: "So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

Everyone is called to respect the special love between a man and a woman who have made a covenant with each other. Such respect requires a mutual respect and reverence that these persons have made a covenant that is to be respected and defended. Marriage is a community building relationship. Everyone is called to respect it. It is the fiber of marriage and family life that holds a community together. So these relationships are very important to stable social pressures that bind us as one. These are the variety of ways in which God calls us from the many to the one.

Deacon's Corner

October 3, 2021

The faith formation theme for this Sunday is the Rosary. This is very appropriate since October is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily because the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7th.

You may occasionally ask yourself, what is the background and history of the Rosary? The structure of the Rosary gradually evolved between the 12th and 15th centuries. There is a long tradition in the Church that St. Dominic de Guzman was the source of the Rosary in the 12th century to counter the Albigensians, who had denied the mystery of Christ. However, the early account of Dominic's life does not mention it, the Dominican constitutions do not link him with it, and portraits do not include it as a symbol to identify the saint.

Furthermore, the evolution of the Rosary over four hundred years is very interesting. Many scholars and theologians conclude that it is the outgrowth of the early monks saying the Psalms. The Rosary started to take form with the Our Father being said 150 times to replace the Psalms. Eventually, Carthusian monk Henry of Kalkar in 1365 divided the 150 Hail Marys into 15 groups of 10 beads. The Our Father was also placed between each group or decade. Later, around 1480, Dominican priests suggested a focus on fifteen episodes in the life and work of Mary and Jesus. From the 16th to the 21st centuries, there were 3 sets of mysteries: the Joyful, the Glorious, and the Sorrowful. In 2001 Pope St. John Paul II added the Luminous Mysteries. The intent was to include meditations on the time in Jesus' life between His incarnation (a Joyful Mystery) and His passion (a Sorrowful Mystery).

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "The rosary is the book of the blind, where souls see and there enact the greatest drama of love the world has ever know; it is the book of the simple, which initiates them into mysteries and knowledge more satisfying than the education of other men; it is the book of the aged, whose eyes close upon the shadow of this world, and open on the substance of the next. The power of the rosary is beyond description."

So, take some time this month to pray the Rosary.

Holy Mary, during the month of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us.

Deacon Paul

Let us pray for the families of Michael Arch, who passed away
on September 19th,
and Justin Edwards,
who passed away on September 22nd.

May God give them comfort,
and may their souls rest in peace.
