Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ:

The personality of Jesus comes to us through anecdotal scenes in the Gospel narratives such as in today's Reading. The disciples went away with Jesus after a day's work to a quiet place to rest. While there, Jesus regarded the crowd and stated in pity: "...for they were like sheep without a shepherd." Was he talking to his disciples, was he talking to himself and overheard by his disciples?

In truth, Jesus commented on the crowd here and elsewhere in the Gospel, and expanded his awareness of the personalities following him. He knew their wants and he responded to them directly or through his disciples. In either case, there was a dialogue, a conversation Jesus was having in which he commented on the needs of the crowd and he took upon himself the role of filling that need. In his teaching the disciples, he also defined their role as he taught the Beatitudes.

In either case, the Old Testament rituals were not fulfilling the needs of the people. Jesus was telling his disciples: "You can do better!" He's saying the same to you and me today. "You can do better." Are we trying to do better than mere protocol today? The Old Testament rituals filled a lot of protocols, but left the crowds empty. Our calling is to fill up the people AND fulfill the protocols. How can your witness of faith be better?

Deacon's Corner

July 18, 2021

I have been thinking a lot about prayer lately. It is such an essential part of our faith life. Then why is it so challenging sometimes? In 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, it says, "Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." Countless articles and books have been written on prayer talking about the many types of prayer, from reflective and contemplative to active participation. Prayer can be very formal and structured or spontaneous. It would take many pages to provide a simple summary.

Even with all this direction on prayer, I sometimes feel like my prayer is "dry," and it is just hard to get started. Maybe if we look at prayer as a daily conversation with God and a little less formal, we can find the words to say like, "Thanks for another day, God" or "Today is going to be a challenge, give me some peace," or "Lord have Mercy." Maybe even just a moment of silence when you don't know what to say. I think that to "pray constantly" means to be aware of God in our lives. How we go about our day through our actions can also be our prayer to God.

So if your prayer may be in a "dry" spell, don't be discouraged; remember God is always listening and just patiently waiting to have a conversation with you.

Have a very blessed and prayerful week.

Deacon Paul

~ Our Family Corner ~

Family

In today's gospel "the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done." Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent, it is sacred time.

Marriage

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile." (Mark 6: 31) Sometimes vacations can be busy and full of visiting people. That's not bad, but is your marriage in need of some quiet time away together - just by yourselves?

What's Happening at St. Lawrence and St. Philip

We are still in need of coordinators for the following fundraisers this Fall.

Albion Fair Booth - Selling Hoagies
which benefits our Faith Formation Program.

Annual Fall Dinner in October - A Team Approach which benefits St. Lawrence Parish.

If no one is interested in taking these over, we will postpone them for this year.

If you would like more information, please call 814-756-3623.

Those who have been in charge in the past are willing to go over all information with you.

Thank you.

We would like to organize a trip in August to the "Servants of Mary Center for Peace", which is located in Windsor, Ohio. Here you will be able to walk around the 50 beautiful acres, pray the Rosary, visit the Chapel, and see the Lake of Hope that is in front of the world's largest statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe, that stands 50 feet tall.

We can join together and car pool, or if there are enough interested, we can rent a bus and go.

If you are interested, please sign up on the sheets located in both vestibules of the church, or you may call the rectory at 814-756-3623

You may take a look at the website at:
<https://servantsofmary.org/>
