Father Mark Edward Groeger

Ordained a Priest of Jesus Christ

for service to the Church in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown

Ordained 29 May 2021 by His Excellency The Most Reverend Mark L. Bartchak, JCD

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; for your unfaithful and tepid priests; for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for your tempted priests; for your lonely and desolate priests; for your young priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in Purgatory. But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: the priest who baptized me; the priests who've absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I've assisted and who've given me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who've taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way, especially Father Mark. O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

My dear parish family:

When Father Mark Groeger and I began to prepare for this weekend of his ordination and First Mass, I remarked that it was wonderful someone else would preach at masses, since it's the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity – the most difficult day to preach in the whole liturgical year! Honestly, how much can you say about one God: Three Persons and They are all in an infinite and awesome existence of love. It's a mystery! In fact, the first time I preached Trinity Sunday, as a transitional deacon at Saint George Church in Erie, after mass, Father Chris Singer, who was the assistant at the time, said to me: "Very good! I liked all three of your homilies!" Yes, when I looked back at the text, I saw that, like the Trinity, I gave three distinct sermons that weekend. So, now 15 Trinity Sundays later, let's keep it simple: the sign of the Trinity and Baptism.

The Sign of the Cross – probably the first prayer we are taught as children: In the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit. It's not just a pious hand gesture to start and end prayer. It's not just a sign that someone is Catholic – because I've seen non-Catholics use it. It is a reaffirmation of our Baptism! The Trinity is traced on our foreheads. The Trinity is called out when the water pours over our body. The Trinity: The Father, our Creator – The Son, our Redeemer – The Spirit, our Sanctifier and Guide

Just think of what that means every time we trace our bodies with the Cross of Jesus Christ; when we mark ourselves with the love of God, the peace of Jesus and the communion of the Holy Spirit.

WE TOUCH OUR HEADS FOR THE FATHER — the one whose mere idea, whose smallest thought, created you and me. This is where we began, in the mind – in the heart of God.

WE TOUCH OUR HEARTS FOR THE SON – the one whose unceasing love took him to the Cross. Yes, He taught us how to love with hope, trust, forgiveness and mercy.

WE TOUCH OUR SHOULDERS FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT – the one who gives us strength, and who carries us on His shoulders — on His wings if you will – with His breathe of fiery hope – and who enables us to do God's good works here on earth and help others make it to heaven.

When we make the sign of the cross, and pray the sign of the cross with those words, we make of ourselves an actual offering to God. You and I become a real and powerful prayer! We have within ourselves what the Most Holy Trinity represents: absolute love united without separation. And we must bring that love, that unity, that working together into our daily, yes, even hourly, lives; and with our actions to all those we meet. We do it in the name of God – all that He is, all that He does. We do it in the name of the Trinity.

Near the end of the baptism ritual, there is a beautiful moment when the parents and godparents and the one being welcomed into the Church receive a lit candle. The priest or deacon says to them "Receive the light of Christ." On this Trinity Sunday, we can learn something about this awesome mystery from a fellow Christian, the great Protestant preacher John Wesley, who once explained the Trinity in this way: The Trinity is three candles, giving off one light.

Let us pray to live in that light – to always be drawn to it, and to always have the strength to share it to others, especially those who may be shrouded in darkness or suffering in loneliness. May we join with all the lights of the Church – of the world – to move forward in unity and in love – with the beaming, guiding glow of the Trinity: In the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Spirit!

Father Justin

SYMBOLON: EP. 1 - THE JOURNEY: TRINITY, FAITH AND THE GOD WHO IS LOVE

The Bible reveals the mystery of who God is: God is love. God created us out of love, died for us out of love, and invites us on a journey of faith in which we live in his love. In this study, we'll look at the God who is Love and how that love shows itself in the Trinity and the Faith.

Prayer to Saint Joseph by Pope Leo XIII

To be recited after praying the Holy Rosary

To thee, O Blessed Joseph, we fly in our tribulation and after imploring the help of thy holy Spouse, with confidence we ask also for thy intercession. By the affection which united thee to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God, and by the paternal love with which thou didst embrace the Child Jesus, we beseech thee to look kindly upon the inheritance which Jesus Christ acquired by His Precious Blood, and with thy powerful aid to help us in our needs.

Protect, most careful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen people of Jesus Christ. Keep us, loving father, from all pestilence of error and corruption. From thy place in heaven be thou mercifully with us, most powerful protector, in this warfare with the powers of darkness and, as thou didst once rescue the Child Jesus from imminent danger of death, so now defend the Holy Church of God from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity. Guard each of us by thy constant patronage, so that, sustained by thy example and help, we may live a holy life, die a holy death, and obtain the everlasting happiness of heaven. Amen

The Parish offers our prayers and sympathy to the family of Bonnie Lynd, mother of Lisa Trumbull.
May she, and all the faithful departed, rest in eternal peace!
