A WORD FROM FR. BRANDON

Whenever I envision what an ideal parish is and what the life of a parish ought to be, what I overwhelmingly come to is that, firstly, the parish should be a place of incredibly fulfilling and astonishingly beautiful Liturgy where Heaven profoundly kisses Earth, where each of us realizes that we've engaged the supernatural and mystical! Secondly, I also land on the fact that a parish should be the 'Font of Truth' for a community. A parish needs to cultivate a Culture of Catechesis where at any given moment, the parish is offering some opportunity to nurture the mind and the soul. Therefore, I believe that Catholic Education in our Catholic Schools is a noble and vital ministry of any parish blessed enough to have it! I have come to think of Catholic Schools as the 8th Sacrament. With that, a strong Faith Formation program is also essential so all the children of our parish can come to know the depths and intricacies of their faith and Church. In addition to those two primary ministries for our young people, it is also imperative for the parish to serve the spiritual and intellectual needs of the adults of the parish. One of my goals as your pastor is to offer opportunities for formation in as many settings and contexts as possible. I plan to offer things seasonally and update on new opportunities every few months. This is a parish where, gratefully, we already have things happening, so we're not starting from scratch! I would just like to really build on it and encourage you all to take advantage of whatever you can and whenever you can— I never want someone to feel locked in; life happens. I also desire to never charge a dime for anything that we do! From St Michael School to an evening adult class and everything in between – it is my mission as pastor to master the stewardship of our parish, so every moment of ministry is available to everyone at the smallest cost possible! The school and Faith Formation have tuition and fees involved at present, but I will be working to bring all those down as far to zero as soon as possible (I already have about 7 spreadsheets going where I am figuring out how to accomplish all that! You have a nerdy pastor!). I just wholly believe that that is what the Offertery is there for and why we have investments and gifts and fundraisers – it's to pay to do Church! Ok...I am passionate about this, so I will end my rant, but you will be, God willing, seeing the fruit of that passion as time goes on. My role as steward of your treasures is sacred. In the meantime, here are some opportunities for Adult Faith Formation starting soon. That Man is You will be starting up on September 15 and will meet weekly, Thursday mornings, from 6:00 AM-7:20 AM in McElhinny Hall. We start with some much-needed coffee and donuts, watch a short video, then have some discussion and are out the door in time for guys to get to work or back home to get the kids ready for school or whatever your early morning routine. I'm excited to have learned about this program which aims at strengthening men as leaders in the world and their families, as well as within the Church. I am anxious for this one to start, and I plan to attend each week with the with the guys! Deacon Frank will be starting up a series on the Blessed Mother put out by the St. Paul Institute on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8 beginning October 4th. It will run for 6 weeks till Advent, then pick back up in January and finish by Lent. Deacon Frank will need a rough number of how many plan to commit to the entire course as there are some materials for him to purchase, but please know you can come whenever – Deacon Frank will have enough materials. Thirdly, I will be having something I came to do a lot, and loved, while in Clearfield, and that is a Q & A on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month, from September through November. Let's make it 7 – 8 PM. All this will be is open questions and answers – ask me anything! I love to be asked questions about the faith and the Church, so whatever you bring, I will do my best to answer! We'll start with a little lesson from me on whatever is on my mind, and then open it up for questions! Some fun and random conversations can break out in these settings, so if nothing else, come for some entertainment! These are just three things I'd just like to put on your radar right now. Both the men's group and the Mary study will have more information out, so look for that. Ultimately, if we are going to set the world on fire as Our Lord desires, then we are going to have to encounter Him in Liturgy and in the deep reflection of His Truth through study, conversation, and prayer. A Culture of Catechesis is something I desire to labor to build up here, and I pray many will labor beside me. guys!

*Love,
Fr. Brandon*

CHILD PROTECTION and CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS

Documentation for working with children: Working alongside the Bishop, the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth reinforces the ongoing implementation of policies and procedures that protect children. All clergy, employees, and volunteers in the Diocese of Erie who work with children must undergo criminal record checks. The diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children and Youth screening guidelines and abuse prevention training programs emphasize the importance of knowing the employees and volunteers who have access to children in our schools and parishes. Parents should remain vigilant in insisting that those with access to their children have gone through an application process and obtained the required clearances and trainings before being granted access to their children. Visit www.eriercd.org/childprotection/ to see what documentation and training is required for those who work with children and youth in our parishes/schools/agencies.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Catholic Church in Latin America is more than ever facing challenges in the work of evangelization. Shortages of resources and pastoral workers, as well as poor infrastructure make simple things like attending weekly Mass difficult for many. As members of the same family of faith, we are called to help our sisters and brothers in Latin America and the Caribbean.

The Collection for the Church in Latin America, scheduled to take place in our Diocese on the weekend of August 21-22, is one way to support them. Your participation in this collection is a meaningful and practical expression of solidarity with people in these regions. The proceeds are used in dioceses, parishes, religious congregations, seminaries and other Catholic institutions. The collection also assists in the formation of priests, religious, lay ministers, missionaries, catechists and youth ministers.

Please be generous toward this collection. Take this opportunity to share your faith with our sisters and brothers in need. Your financial support, and just as importantly, your prayers, will truly make a difference. For more information on the Church in Latin America, and the many projects funded by the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Be assured of my own prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Lawrence T. Persico
