A MINDSET OF SERVICE

There's a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers. The psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God's steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke's Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha, and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others. Each of us can ask, How am I present to God and others in my life? Copyright © J. S. REST IN PEACE

Please pray for those making this Cursillo. To learn more, please contact Dave D'Urso at 724-456-5280 or apply online at www.ericursillo.org/make-a-cursillo. CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Support the Catholic Home Missions today. Right now, over 40% of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territory because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work in their communities. Your donations support programs, such as religious education, seminary formation and lay ministry training, to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous.

Phone calls, emails, texts and tweets can reduce our lives to a continual series of interrupted moments. Listen to Jesus in today's Gospel: "You are anxious about many things" robbing us of the precious time needed to BE with others. Quality time is intentional time - free from distractions.

To forgive is to set a prisoner free and to discover that the prisoner is me.
