January 4, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“That you may tell your children and grandchildren.” (Ex 10:2) With this opening line, Pope Francis authored his message for 2020’s World Communications Day one year ago this month. It is amazing to think how relevant it became, given how little understanding we had at that time concerning the impact COVID-19 would have on the world.

There is no doubt we will tell those who come after us about this unusual and challenging year. But what is it we will share? Will we focus on the information overload, the fear, the separation and hardships? Or will we look back and see how the difficulties strengthened us, taught us to trust and to rely on God more fully? Will we tell them that we rediscovered our priorities and found new ways to encounter Christ?

Pope Francis went on to encourage us to focus on stories that build up rather than tear down; that help us find strength to move forward together. He suggested we look for a narrative that regards our world and its happenings with a tender gaze and that reveals the interweaving of the threads which connect us to one another.

We strive to make that easier with every piece of content we share through our Communications Office, including Faith magazine, www.eriercd.org, the weekly Diocese of Erie News, as well as our social media platforms. These tools proved their importance more than ever in this year during which we had to rely so heavily on technology.

Your contributions to the Help Spread the Faith campaign, scheduled to take place the weekend of Jan. 24, 2021, will help ensure we can continue to make these cost-free resources available to all parishioners throughout the diocese.

Please know of my gratitude for your support.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+Lawrence T. Persico
The Most Reverend
Lawrence T. Persico, JCL
Bishop of Erie

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
