HELP PREGNANT WOMEN!

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you ...” ~ Jeremiah 1:5

Thousands of pregnant women in Pennsylvania could lose vital services, if the Governor goes forward with his plan to wipe out the Pregnancy & Parenting Support Services program, which is administered by Real Alternatives. Please act now to prevent this from happening!

☐ Call the Governor’s office at 717-787-2500 and let him know you stand with pregnant women and want Real Alternatives’ contract to be renewed.

☐ Go to www.paprolife.org to send an immediate message to your state Representative and state Senator respectfully asking them to ensure that Real Alternatives’ contract is preserved.

☐ Share our posts on Real Alternatives on Facebook, Twitter, Insta-gram, and LinkedIn.

☐ Pray that the Governor’s decision will be reversed and pregnant women will receive the help they need.

A WORD FROM FATHER BRANDON

As the academic year is gearing up for everyone, and the summer recess has come to an end, it is also that time to begin thinking about RCIA. RCIA, or rather OCIA as the acronym has been changed, is the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. The new acronym stands for Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. Truly, it doesn't matter what you call it, what matters is that it is the process for those who wish to come into the Catholic Church through either Baptism or through a Profession of Faith (for those already Baptized in a non-Catholic tradition) and then the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist which follow. I will be handling this process for those who wish to enter the Church this coming Easter. Running the RCIA was something I had done since my first year of priesthood and is something that I find a lot of joy in doing. What I love about the process is that you get to walk with men and women who are hungry to come into the true faith, which, as the Book of Jude says, was "once for all handed over to the saints". RCIA is not a class someone signs up for and a course that needs to be completed. Rather, RCIA is a time of feeding that hunger for the True Faith through participating in the life of the Church, in a maturing life of prayer, with study of the Word of God, and coming to greater clarity about the pillars of this Faith. At the heart of the RCIA process is the Sunday Liturgy. If someone is wanting to come into the Church and to one day partake of the Eucharist and find God in this faith Christ has handed on to us, then that person cannot honestly engage that process without a devotion to Sunday Mass. It is there that the rubber meets the road; it is in the Sunday Liturgy that the people experience Church! It is not some textbook, nor keeping up with the latest chatter on Catholic social media, but the Liturgy. The Liturgy is the greatest act that we do, and someone who desires to come into the Church needs to be engaged in the Liturgy. Therefore, the weekly Sunday Liturgy is the only true requirement for the RCIA process.

If you are someone interested, or if you know someone, who is just at least thinking about entering the Church, about beginning a life in this faith that Our Lord handed onto the saints, then please have them email me. Who can go through RCIA? Anyone who is unbaptized or baptized in a non-Catholic tradition (Protestant). Baptized Adult Catholics who have not received their Confirmation, can also reach out to me and we can get you Confirmed. Any children over the age of 8 can also go through an amended process and receive their Sacraments, too, at the Easter Vigil.

There is not a formal 'start date', and I would meet with people individually and based on their needs and speak to them where they are at. I would bring the group together from time to time before Easter, but week to week, it would be conversations about the faith, learning how to pray, answering questions, and preparing to enter this Great Mystery of God's Love for His children! If someone is going to go through the process, though, this year, I would like for them to begin by mid-October. Again, if you are someone or know someone who is at the very least interested, please have them reach out to me via email, the address is on the front of the bulletin.

Speaking of the bulletin, we are looking to create a simpler, more streamlined bulletin when our current contract ends at the end of September. I want to make something that is more customizable, something where we can be flexible week to week, and ultimately to only give you the essentials each week. There are a lot of pages in the bulletin, and some weeks we need that, others not, but we're locked into that template (that's just how bulletin printing companies do it to lock in the cheapest cost). So, a lot of that is back office talk, but just a heads up that it'll be a little bit of trial and error, but we will be making and customizing our own bulletin starting in October.

Love,

Fr. Brandon

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

Relationships live in a careful balance. If a person changes, the balance is altered requiring a shift in the relationship. In today's gospel Jesus announced a change and Peter resisted. Sometimes, those we count on for support may actually get in the way. Jesus told Peter: "You are an obstacle to me."

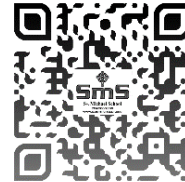

THOUGHTS FOR PARENTS

"You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped... everyone mocks me." (Jeremiah 20:7) Sometimes a parent may feel that society (even experts) give conflicting parenting advice. (Should I spank or not? When should a child get a cell phone?...) Children also fear their peers mocking them. When in doubt turn to your best instincts and prayer.
