DECREEREVISING THE PRACTICE OF THE FAITHFUL DURING THE COMMUNION RITE OF THE MASS

WHEREAS the current edition of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal was promulgated in Latin by the Holy See in the year 2000, and the English translation of the same was approved by the Holy See in 2003, together with adaptations approved for use in the United States of America;

Whereas among the approved adaptations for use in the United States is the following: "In the Dioceses of the United States of America, they [the faithful], should kneel ...after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) unless the Diocesan Bishop determines otherwise," (paragraph 42);

Whereas in 2003, the then Bishop of Erie, the Most Reverend Donald W. Trautman, determined that the faithful in the Diocese of Erie would stand instead of kneel after the Agnus Dei and throughout the Communion Rite;

Whereas the practice in the Diocese of Erie differs from the practice of most dioceses in the United States, and it is increasingly difficult for many parishioners to stand for long periods of time during the distribution of Holy Communion, and across the diocese countless parishioners – often the majority in many parishes – on their own accord have already returned to the practice of kneeling after the Agnus Dei;

Whereas in light of the above, I judge it pastorally expedient and an effective sign of our communion with our neighboring dioceses that we return to the practice approved by the Holy See for use in the United States;

THEREFORE, in accord with paragraph 42 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, I direct that the faithful in the Diocese of Erie shall kneel at Mass following the conclusion of the Agnus Dei. Those who receive Holy Communion may, upon returning to their place, either kneel or sit according to their choice until the beginning of the prayer after Communion, at which time all stand.

I direct that this Decree be published and take effect on the First Sunday of Advent, which begins at 4:00 p.m. on November 27, 2021, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

Given at the Chancery of the Diocese of Erie
on this 22nd day of October, 2021

"Authentic Leadership in the Home" is the title for our next session, scheduled for November 18, 2021. All sessions meet in McElhinny Hall. The sessions start with a social gathering and refreshments at 6 AM, followed by a video, group discussion, and concluding at 7:20 AM. All men are invited to join us. Attendance at previous sessions is not required. Topics included in this session are Must Find and Adore God in the Home, Holy Family as Our Example, Saint Joseph Patriarch of the Holy Family, Servant Leadership, and Authentic Leadership Can Transform the World.

ANNUAL GIVING TREE

The time has arrived for the Annual Giving Tree. Due to the continued pandemic and how well this service project worked out last year, we are again asking for gift cards to Walmart or monetary donations we will use to purchase gift cards to give to the individuals we hope to serve. There are many people from infant to elderly who can use a little extra help. If you can participate this year, you can drop off your donation of gift cards or money (cash or check made out to St. Michael Church) to the church office or mail it to: St. Michael Church at 85 North High St. Greenville, PA 16125, marked Giving Tree. All donations should be delivered to the church by December 12th. Thank you to all who make this parish activity a blessing for so many!

iGIVE CATHOLIC DAY

iGiveCatholic Day is Tuesday November 30! Many non profits promote Giving Tuesday to encourage donors to give to their charitable organizations in the spirit of the holidays. Giving Tuesday falls right after Black Friday and Cyber Monday as many rush to shop and give for Christmas. "iGiveCatholic" gives our faith community the opportunity to make donations in that same spirit to the local parish. Donations can be made by using the iGiveCatholic envelopes or by going to <https://erie.igivecatholic.org/organizations/st-michael-parish-greenville> anytime between November 16 and November 30.

SPECIAL RETREAT FOR ENGAGED COUPLES

Engaged couples are invited to attend an Engagement Encounter this January 28-30, 2022. Engagement Encounter is a restful retreat designed to provide a meaningful environment for deepening the conversations and habits necessary in a happy, holy, and lasting marriage. Here is what a past participant had to say: "I cannot thank you enough for an amazing experience this weekend. My fiancé and I will never forget it and all of the special moments." Learn more or register at <https://www.eriecd.org/familylifeoffice/ee.html>. We would love to welcome you this January!
