A WORD FROM FR. BRANDON

This past week, Pope Francis named a priest of our diocese, Msgr. Ed Lohse, as the new bishop of the Diocese of Kalamazoo, MI. Msgr. Lohse is the first priest of the diocese to be named a bishop since Msgr. Mark Bartchak was called to lead the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown back in 2011. Msgr. Lohse is currently our Vicar General – essentially the head priest who is the direct assistant and aide to the Bishop. Msgr. Lohse will be terribly missed by all of us in the Diocese if you knew him or not.

He was the Vocations Director at the time I was entering the seminary coming out of high school, and I had the privilege of living with him for my 4 years at Saint Mark Seminary, as well as a year that I was at Saint George Church. 5 of the last 19 years were spent living with Msgr. Lohse and getting to know an incredibly holy and joyful priest. He has been a constant role model and mentor for me in my own priesthood. I have worked with him much on a slew of diocesan committees and boards I am or have been on over the last nearly 11 years as a priest. Since 2015, he has been at the helm of the Diocese, alongside Bishop Persico, leading us and navigating us through all the waves of Parish Pastoral Planning, seeing us through the incredibly sad time of the PA Grand Jury Report, as well as taking the lead in so much of how we weathered the covid pandemic of the last few years. There is nothing in the life of parishes and parishioners that Msgr. Lohse hasn't had a hand in – not the least being accepting me into the seminary! For as sad as it will be to see him leave our Diocese, it is also pretty unbelievable to see that such a holy priest who is in love with his priesthood and with Christ – a love that truly defines him as a man – is taking the step to be a Successor to the Apostles! A bishop – an Apostle – is someone that needs to be inflamed with Divine Love and Divine Truth. An Apostle is not just someone who 'can do a good job', but someone who only knows how to do the 'job' of Christ! An Apostle should be the outward sign – an icon, a small 'S' sacrament – of the Good Shepherd, of Christ! I can't think of anyone else more apt for such a vocation as Msgr. Lohse! And for this, I have this incredible reassurance that God is truly in charge and that His Church is magnificently triumphant! At times, it is painfully tempting and utterly easy to fall into a despair of the church that it's just a conglomerate of fallen men doing fallen things and we're just losing the battle against the enemy...maybe you can't relate, but, for me, it is oft something I wrestle with when facing the immensity of just how wrong things can seem to be, and when the Church feels no different than the fallen world. But, then, something beautiful happens when The Holy Father in Rome gets wind of a holy and simple priest with a profound mind and heart here in our little outpost of the world, and raises him to the Office of Apostle! Then, you just know, even if it's just a slight twinkle of light, that God is truly in control and that He is raising up saints all around us and infusing this fallen world with His unfathomable Love and Grace! As Saint Paul often contemplates in his writings and within Acts, we don't know the full extent of God's Will for us while here on Earth. He doesn't demand of us an understanding of it. All Our Lord asks is that we say Yes to the invitation to come follow Him wherever He may go. No matter if that is to Kalamazoo or to the confessional or to visit someone we've had a grudge against for years – it doesn't matter – all He asks is that we just go and let the Spirit work through us in that place. Though we are scattered afar, we are being drawn together into the eternal Kingdom of the Father.

This weekend we celebrate the culmination of the Easter Season – actually, the fulfillment of all we've been walking through since the beginning of Lent – with the Solemnity of Pentecost. Pentecost is not when we receive a Spirit of complete clarity or a Spirit that will give us all the answers that we need; that is not the Spirit of God. That transactional understanding of God is detrimental to spiritual health. Rather, Pentecost gives us a Spirit that draws us into something otherworldly, something utterly mystical, something unprecedented to our own minds and understandings. As we celebrate the coming of the Spirit into the life of the Church, and into each of our lives at Confirmation and Baptism in particular, let us renew our desire to see Him, to know Him, and to do His Will, and abandon ourselves to the realization that we are not the author of our lives – He is. In this abandonment, let us find the Joy to go and to do the Will of God however and wherever the Spirit leads! If we do it right, it is an incredible journey of Love and of Joy!

*Love,
Fr Brandon*
