A WORD FROM FATHER BRANDON

With our parish feast of Saint Michael, the Archangel, upon us on September 29, I wanted to begin a tradition here that I felt would be something to help us really love each other and strengthen our awareness of us being a family in Christ and a family in faith. Honestly, what better type of tradition is there than one that involves a good meal!? That is why I wanted to initiate, what I call, 'Michael's Meal'!

I must admit, though, that I am not being novel in this. When I pastor at Saint Francis, Clearfield, I began the Francis Feast, which ironically would've coincided with the same weekend. I think I had four of them during my time there as pastor - we had to omit the '20 gathering for obvious reasons - and it was honestly one of the funnest nights of the year! Leaving there to come here, one of the things I mourned the most was the absence of that dinner. Truthfully. Last year, it was too soon for me to initiate that, but now it was time!

Let me note here that Saint Margaret is a mission of Saint Michael Parish, so this is their Feast, too! Sometimes the word 'mission' and the fact that mission churches will have their own unique name attached to them can create an obscurity of how the mission is part of the parish at large. Just think of it as Saint Margaret Mission being an addition to the building of Saint Michael Church. Because we cover so much territory as a parish (I think over 100 Sq Miles), we need more real estate to accomplish the work of the parish. So, the parish is the people, and the parish of Saint Michael utilizes two buildings: St Michael Church and Saint Margaret Mission Church. The parish is the people, not the real estate. The people (The Parish) utilize buildings to meet its needs and purposes, and we here use two church buildings. OK - I won't belabor the point, but I want to emphasize that if you primarily attend the 9AM Parish Mass at the St Margaret location, you are not registered as a parishioner of Saint Margaret, but of Saint Michael Parish. Saint Margaret Parish doesn't exist. We simply have a Saint Michael Parish Mass in Jamestown. SO - if you primarily attend that Mass at that location, your parish Feast Day is still the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel and this dinner is your dinner, too! We can't exist with any confusion over how all that is structured. I am the pastor of one parish, not two, and I intend to celebrate with my whole parish, not just those that attend Mass at a certain building!

Parishes tend to do various things for their feast day - and many do nothing at all. It's sort of sad when nothing happens and nothing of note or solemnity is anticipated from the people. At the core of a parish is the people - that is what a parish is! Not a building, but the people. So, early in my priesthood, I wanted to use the occasion of the Feast to simply be people, be a family, and just enjoy a good meal and friendship. No agenda, no collection, no fee, no sales pitch, nothing being slyly brought up - just come together. And since the holidays are crazily getting nearer, we're all looking forward to holiday gatherings and dinners and parties that will be had in the not-too-distant future. This is our parish holiday, and we're kicking off the holiday season early with what we do on holidays: come together, hang out, eat some good food, and celebrate the fact that we are together, we love each other, we care and look out for each other - and we do that under the mantle of the Archangel Michael and Christ.

You would have gotten an invite over Flocknote this past week, and there is an invite in the bulletin this weekend. Please RSVP by replying to your Flocknote, tearing off the RSVP found with the invite here in the bulletin and dropping it in the basket next weekend, or leaving an email or message with the office. I need numbers by noon next Sunday, so please RSVP this week.

Love,
Fr. Brandon

FAMILY THOUGHTS:

Unable to forgive another means we are holding on to a past wrong and hoping for a better past. That is not going to happen. We must move on with our life by accepting we were unjustly treated and it will not be corrected. We aren't condoning the injustice. We just don't let it control our lives any longer. Forgiveness is critical to living a healthy life in the present.

SAINT MICHAEL SCHOOL NEWS

Registration is STILL open for the 2023-2024 School Year! Call for information: 724-588-7050 or scan to visit our website.

SMS Merch

Are you looking for ways to show your Irish pride? Visit our school's online Spiritwear store on our website: www.saintmichael1.org to order today!

First Weeks Recap

SMS now has 2 weeks under its belt! What a fantastic 2 weeks it has been! We...

- increased our enrollment by 11 new students (keep you prayers coming for more!),
- opened a second PreK4 class: the first double class per grade in over a decade,
- welcomed 3 new teachers and an additional PreK Aide,
- hosted a fun and full Back-To-School Picnic and Open House,
- introduced our Irish Ideals of Saintly, Mindful, and Safe to our students with lessons all around our campus to teach them our Irish Ideal expectations in each section,
- celebrated our first school Mass, "sorted" our students into Saint Houses (think Harry Potter Hogwarts houses, but named after Saints!) with St. Gemma Galgani, Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati, Bl. Chiara Luce Baudino, and Bl. Carlo Acutis as patrons,
- chose patrons saints for all our classes,
- learned all about how to be "Safe at Lunch" with a puppet show put on by Midwestern Intermediate Unit IV,
- raised money for the Pink Angels, our first Casual for a Cause this year,
- and, of course, began the wondrous adventure of learning in all our subjects this year!

ST. MICHAEL/ST. MARGARET MEN'S GROUP

For the past two years a group of men have met early each Thursday morning during the Fall and Winter months. That Man Is You (TMIY) video series, developed by Paradisus Dei, was executed to guide our small group discussions. This year we have elected to use a program titled "Into The Breach", developed by the national Knights of Columbus. This is a 12 week video series, which will be started on Thursday October 5 beginning at 6:00 A.M. in McElhinny Hall. With a break from Thanksgiving through the holidays, the program will conclude on February 8. The sharing of experiences and our faith during the small group discussions, following the weekly video, has proven to be very rewarding. All men are welcome to join! Contact Steve Kerch (440-228-5884 or stevekerch@yahoo.com) for more information or to sign up.
