23rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Glory & Praise to Our God

Glory and praise to our God, who alone gives light to our days. Many are the blessings he bears to those who trust in his ways.

We, the daughters and sons of him who built the valleys and plains, Praise the wonders our God has done in every heart that sings. (ref)

Responsorial Psalm

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts

Come to Me

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy burdened and I shall give you rest. Take up my yoke and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart. And you'll find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

1. You, God, are my shepherd, I shall never be I need. Fresh and green are the meadows where you give me rest (to ref)
2. Beside peaceful waters you restore my true self; There you lead me to walk in the path of new life. (to ref)

Christ be Our Light

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness, Longing for truth, we turn to you. Make us your own, you holy people, light for the world to see.

Christ be our light, shine in our hearts, Shine through the darkness. Christ be our light, shine in your church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our work is troubled. Longing for hope, many despair. Your word alone has power to save us. Make us your living voice. (to ref)
3. Longing for food, many are hungry. Longing for water, many still thirst. Make us your bread, broken for others, shared until all are fed. To ref.
4. Longing for shelter, many are homeless. Longing for warmth, many are cold. Make us your building, sheltering others, walls made of living stone. (to ref)
5. Longing Many the gifts, many the people, many the hearts that yearn to belong. Let us be servants to one another, making your kingdom come. (to ref)

Let There be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me. Let there be peace on earth and the peace that was meant to be. With God as our Father, brothers all are we; Let me walk with by brother in perfect harmony. Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now with every breath I take, let this be my solemn vow; To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally. Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments 09/06/2020

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments- Diocesan Child Protection Policies: The Diocese of Erie, along with all other dioceses in the United States, has policies and procedures in place to address the national problem of child abuse and to aid in maintaining safe environments. The three main components of the Policy for the Protection of Children are: screening of all employees and volunteers who work with minors, training of all youth, parents, employees and volunteers, and reporting all suspected child abuse. The diocese is committed to promptly reporting any suspected child abuse directly to ChildLine or law enforcement. The diocese requires on-going screening and training of all personnel, paid or unpaid, who have regular contact with our children and youth under the age of 18. The diocese also requires yearly safe environment training of our children, youth and parents regarding touching -safety and safe environments. Visit <https://www.erieecd.org/childprotection/> to read the policy and learn what the diocese requires for all personnel who work with children and youth in parishes/schools/agencies.

Father John Walsh recently celebrated his 40th anniversary as a priest. In Latin, the term is Quadrageennial and is known as the Ruby Jubilee. Unfortunately, due to the Pandemic, we were unable to celebrate. The Saint Peter Altar and Rosary is encouraging everyone to send a card or note acknowledging this milestone. Please remember Fr. Walsh in your prayers, and honor his many years of spiritual guidance by sending him an expression of your appreciation. We are asking that you send your congratulatory card/note by the week of September 13th.
