Some Housekeeping Items

1. The Church office staff will be working from home until further notice. The phone messages will be checked periodically, so if you are in need, please leave a message. This should be only for emergency purposes only. Thank you for your cooperation.
2. Since the website is our best means of communication, as snail mailings are time-delayed and too expensive, I encourage those who use the internet to contact those you know who do not have access to a computer and let them know what's going on.
3. Many thanks to those who continue to support our parishes financially during this difficult time. Your sacrifice and generosity are greatly appreciated.

Ideas for your Spiritual Life

1. There are many opportunities to participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass either on television or computer. Please make use of the following during this time and be sure to make a spiritual communion which is found on our parish website or that you received through our earlier mailing.

EWTN (Eternal Word Television Network-Catholic television station) 8am Daily Mass and Sunday Mass (live streaming)-on cable or www.ewtn.com

Divine Mercy (Official) Facebook page (Marians of the Immaculate Conception)-live streaming 9am Mass.

Bishop Barron Word on Fire 8:15am Mass (recorded)-www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass/

Diocese of Erie Sunday Mass (live streaming from St. Peter Cathedral)-www.eriecd.org

2. Sacramental Confession will be offered at St. Philip at the following times the week of March 29-April 4:

Monday-March 30th 10am-11am

Tuesday -March 31st 1pm-2pm

Wednesday-April 1st 6pm-7pm or call for an appointment

Please reserve the Wednesday evening hour for those who work during the day

Keep in the mind the following protocols for confessions at the church: safe distancing within the church, no face to face confessions and no prolonged period of spiritual direction.

3. The Church doors are open during the day for private prayer before the Blessed Sacrament present in the tabernacle. As a precaution, maintain safe distancing within the Church and limit to 10 people maximum at any one time.

4. Consider the following material for personal spiritual growth and development:

Spiritualdirection.com (Dan Burke) for faithful Catholic content

FORMED online subscription for individuals (<https://formed.org/faithathome>) from the Augustine Institute...access to thousands of Catholic movies, videos, audio, and books. This is free for 40 days. It is something being considered for our parishes. So it would helpful to get feedback from those who take advantage of this site.

Institute of Catholic Culture (faithful and free)- www.instituteofcatholicculture.org

Magnificat is offering free access to online resources at this time (<https://us.magnificat.net/free>)

5. Food Pantry contributions are essential during this time and so we ask that you please consider sending a check to St. Philip so that we can continue to support this important and necessary ministry. St. Peter parishioners are asked to consider a donation to the Springboro Food Pantry handled by the United Church of Springboro. "Whatever you did for the least of my brothers and sisters, you did for me."

PRAYER FOR CORONAVIRUS OUTBREAK

Keep us, good Lord,
under the shadow of your mercy,
in this time of uncertainty and distress.
Sustain and support the anxious and fearful,
and lift up all who are brought low;
that we may rejoice in your comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Please remember to mail your envelopes into the office if you don't care to give on line. Father gets the mail everyday, so you don't have to worry about it. Also, if you make a payment to the CSA, please make a separate check to the Church and mark in the memo line CSA. Since we aren't having regular collections, one check for many areas (csa, flowers, food pantry, etc) won't work. We won't be able to separate the check. So, just keep that in mind when you are writing a check. Thank you!

Triduum

Question:

I haven't attended Triduum services before and I may not this year either because of the COVID-19. What happens that's different from a normal Sunday Mass?

Answer:

The liturgies during Holy Week are unique and rich in symbolism. The Mass for Palm Sunday follows the pattern of the day 2,000 years ago when Jesus entered Jerusalem. It includes a Gospel reading outside the church building and the entrance of the priest into the sanctuary while the congregation waves palms.

The Holy Thursday Mass also follows the rhythm of the ancient Last Supper. The presider washes the feet of members of the congregation, like Jesus washed the feet of the disciples. After Mass, all remaining hosts are taken to an altar of repose, where adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs late into the night. Parishioners can remain like the disciples in Gethsemane, asked to "watch and pray."

On Good Friday, we celebrate another special liturgical service. Following the Liturgy of the Word, there is a communal reverencing of the cross. The intercessions are solemn and include prayers for many different groups of people, reminding us that Jesus' passion is for the whole world. There is no Liturgy of the Eucharist. Hosts consecrated on Holy Thursday are distributed, after which the tabernacle is empty. The tabernacle remains empty through Holy Saturday — just as Jesus departed from this earthly world in death — and we wait in hope for Easter Sunday!
