Purple Martins: There is a letter from Bill Wenger, who takes care of the Purple Martin Gourds in the lower parking lot @ St. Philip, on the bulletin board. He explains how they did in 2018. It is an interesting piece of knowledge.

It is natural to want stuff - food, clothing, shelter are necessities. Fashionable clothes, eating out, and electronics are not evil. BUT, how do you reconcile these desires with "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" (Mark 10:23) How much is enough? Decide at least one thing to give away today. See my Living Lightly blog for ideas.

Thank you to Chris & Amanda Davis for their gifts to the ones that concentrated themselves to the Blessed Mother and to Gene & Vickie Bocan for the Rosaries from Fatima. It was very thoughtful of you and very much appreciated.

St. Philip Church was asked to do the bonfire for the Linesville Trunk or Treat on Oct. 25th. We would like to have s'mores and drinks available for the kids. Last year there were about 500 people attending. If you can please help by donating the following items:

Graham crackers, Marshmallows, Chocolate bars, bottles of water, juice boxes, small individual bottles of any kind of drinks. If you prefer to have someone shop for you, there will be a can available for cash donations in the Gathering Room. Everyone is invited to either decorate the trunk of your car and pass out candy or sit by the fire. Help is needed for setting up the fire and treats. See the table in the Gathering Room. Come join in the fun. Linesville Little League Field Oct. 25th from 5:30-8:30. If decorating a car, it must be in place by 5p.m. Please have the items requested by the 21st of October. Call Eagles Nest for more information.

Having possessions
told the young man his trust in God. He is an illusion. In today's gospel Jesus to give up his need to control and put couldn't let go! In families, our need to control destroys relationships. We can lead, teach and encourage, but we can't control anyone but ourselves.

Attention St. Philip: We need desserts for the Spaghetti Dinner on October 21. The signup sheet is on the round table in the Gathering Space.
