Disaster relief Collection will take place the weekend of Nov. 4th. From the tsunami in Indonesia to the hurricanes affecting the southern United States, natural disasters are currently affecting thousands of lives. Please discern whether God is inviting you to financially assist our sisters and brothers whose lives are being affected by natural disasters around the globe and in our own backyard.

Thank You to Ken Williams and James Ball for the donation of microphone extension cables for the Children's Choir.

"The world will change. It always has. The question is: Will it change for the better? You and I, one moment at a time, get to answer that question together." Matthew Kelly

Attention St. Philip Parishioners: There are a few summer flowers left on the Cemetery which need to be removed. Please remove them by Nov. 1.

Divine Mercy Meeting will be November 5th @ 5:30p.m. in the quilting room.

When Jesus asked the blind man "What do you want from me?" he asked for sight. If Jesus asked you the same question, what would you say? Pure and simple, that is prayer.

The Knights of Columbus will be having a Mass for our deceased members at O.L.Q.A. at 10:30am on Nov. 4th. Coffee and donuts will be available after Mass to all who attend Mass.

Attention: All Liturgical Ministers, Parishioners & Guests: Be sure to mark your calendars and plan to attend a Morning of Reflection that will be held from 8:00a.m.-noon on Saturday, November 17th @ Our Lady Queen of the Americas. Rev. Cyprian Constantine, OSB, the Director of Liturgical Formation at St. Vincent College, will present an insightful program entitled The Mystery of the Mass.

The Program begins at 8:00a.m. with registration in the church hall and concludes with the celebration of the Mass @ 11:00a.m. Ample time for small group discussions and questioning will be included. Don't miss this excellent opportunity to gain a deeper understand and appreciation of the Roman Catholic Mass. Light refreshments will be served.
