All Saints

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.

ALL SAINTS REFLECTION

On this Feast of All Saints, we have the profound joy of celebrating our big brothers and sisters in Christ: the saints! This is an especially meaningful feast for us as Christian stewards. At our Baptism, we all receive the call to holiness and discipleship — in other words, the call to sainthood. If we wish to go to Heaven, we must strive to become saints! Thankfully, through the stewardship way of life, we can each discover our unique path to do just that. In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus reveals His Beatitudes. In them, our Lord lays out the characteristics that mark His disciples, His saints-in-the-making. As we examine, tweak, and update our commitments to the stewardship way of life, we must always keep these Beatitudes in mind as a measure of our progress towards saintliness. The “blessed” that our Lord speaks of are not the different types of good people who get to go to Heaven. Rather, the “blessed” are the characteristics of the disciples of Christ. These characteristics — poor in spirit, mourners, meek, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, merciful, clean of heart, peacemakers, persecuted for the sake of righteousness, and insulted — can only be obtained with an abundance of grace. But we are children of God, so we have access to the infinite treasury of God's grace. Armed with that grace and the stewardship way of life, we can have firm hope that one day we will join our big brothers and sisters in the never-ending joys and celebration of Heaven.

TOWARD MORE EFFICIENT COMMUNICATION

Of the many challenges the pandemic has imposed on us in our parishes' ability to communicate frequently and efficiently with our people. Mass mailings are too cost prohibitive. We would like to begin building a parish e-mail distribution list. To be included on this list, please send Fr. Jason an email at glover001@gannon.edu. Indicate who in your household will have access to the email. This way, we can minimize our postage costs of future mass mailings.

EVERYDAY SAINTS

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn't fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us.

- Tracy Earl Welliver

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Anyone can be "saint" in front of strangers but the daily acts of patience, acceptance, forgiveness, listening, and dying to oneself within the family are religious acts. Family life is the turf of sanctity.

It's that time of year to...

- ✓ Check the operation of your smoke detectors, and change the batteries. Install additional detectors if needed.
- ✓ Inspect and ready your heating system. Empty the ashes, and clean the soot from your fireplace.
- ✓ Check the weather-stripping around doors and windows, and replace those that are worn.

...and remember to set your clocks back one hour on November 1, 2020.

Fall Time Reminder...

NATIONAL HOMELESS YOUTH AWARENESS MONTH

We consider our homes to be safe places for our children, but up to 2.5 million US youth experience homelessness every year. 50,000 youth sleep on the streets for six months or more each year. One of the main causes of youth homelessness is family instability, which includes child abuse and/or neglect, domestic violence, parental substance abuse and family conflict. The website of the National Child Traumatic Stress Network (www.nctsn.org) offers information on a range of child safety topics. Visit <https://www.eriecd.org/childprotection/> for additional resources on recognizing and reporting suspected child abuse.

CHRISTMAS BAKE SALE AND MARKET

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is sponsoring a Christmas Bake Sale and Market on December 12-13. The sale features nut bread, pumpkin rolls, cookies, pepperoni balls, pierogi, czarnina, and cabbage rolls. All orders must be made in advance and prepaid. Order forms can be obtained online at www.olmc-erie.org or at the parish office. Pick-up is from 3-5PM on Saturday and 8:30-11AM on Sunday.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Get in the ring

Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12

"They have washed their robes

And made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Catholic activist Mary "Mother" Jones famously urged: "Pray for the dead—and fight like hell for the living." She did both, especially fighting for miner's rights and against child labor at the turn of the 20th century. Called the "most dangerous woman in America" for her clout with the laboring class, she spoke for those who weren't heard. Mother Jones won't ever be a saint on the books, but she did as saints do: listened carefully to the concerns of her times, then went in punching for the needs of the oppressed. Who needs your voice—and maybe your boxing skills?

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

It is well with my soul

Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40

"Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life."

This year, as we mourn the scores of those in our country and around the world who are dead from the pandemic, All Souls' Day has a uniquely terrible gravity. We are not only grieving the loss of so many human lives but also the loss of what our lives were like before, and we are doing it without the same emotional support we might have had in physically closer times. Today is an opportunity to pray and remember, and acknowledge the deep sadness that is so important to the healing process. Invite the God of hope to wipe away your tears.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

Create healing and harmony

Philippians 2:5-11; Luke 14:15-24

"Bring in here the poor and the crippled, the blind and the lame."

Martin de Porres is the perfect intercessor for the United States today, on Election Day. This famously humble Dominican friar, born of poverty and mixed racial background, is the patron saint of race relations and social justice. Plus, he trained as a doctor to hide an ability to perform miraculous cures. Ask for his help and healing to end our time of pandemic and social division. And ask to have a heart like his: "Everything, even sweeping, scraping vegetables, weeding a garden, and waiting on the sick could be a prayer, if it were offered to God."

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

Be bread for the world

Philippians 2:12-18; Luke 14:25-33

"...who does not renounce all possessions cannot be my disciple"

During the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic, bishops dispensed Catholics from their Sunday obligation to attend Mass. Some leaders found ways for parishioners to be the church in the world, helping the needy, feeding the hungry, and even doing such things as sending baked goods to local hospitals. During the plague of 1576, Cardinal Charles Borromeo took to the streets of Milan to feed the hungry, going into personal debt to do so. Patron saint of cardinals, seminarians, and catechists, Saint Charles pray for us until the day when it is safe for all to gather again to share in the Eucharist.

Keep the conversation going

Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10

"There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents..."

Have you ever had to rethink your life? Vocation is an ongoing conversation between you and God about how best to use your gifts, and sometimes a "reset" is necessary. Saint Paul refers to the years he spent persecuting the church as a loss in today's first reading. He thought he was doing the right thing when he pushed to have Christians flogged. But he listened to God through dramatic events in his life and discerned that his calling was to join the Christians, eventually becoming their lead evangelizer. Keep the conversation between you and God going!

No more scarring the Earth

Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 16:1-8

"Prepare a full account of your stewardship."

Today marks the International Day for Preventing the Exploitation of the Environment in War. Just as human life is impacted and threatened by war, so too is our Earth. In 2003, the archbishop of Dublin spoke with the U.S. bishops on today's challenge of peace, saying: "The pursuit of peace—lasting peace based on justice—ought to be an environmental priority because the Earth itself bears the wounds and scars of war." The bishops call the church to "help build bridges among the peace, justice, and environmental agendas and constituencies." How can we do this in our own neighborhoods? How can we avoid war and bring justice and peace to the local environment in which we live

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Dare to love

Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15

"...is also trustworthy in great ones."

In his papal letter "The Joy of Love," Pope Francis speaks of the "tender gaze" with which Jesus looks on all. He might have learned this from Mary. In marriage, spouses learn to look at each other this tenderly, marveling at goodness even when youth and attractiveness fade, as Francis notes. Negotiating conflicts, seeing challenges as resolvable, and appreciating the "large nest" of extended family must have been skills Jesus gained by spending most of his life in such a setting. The pope suggests turning off mobile devices, creating conversation around the dining table. Can you and your loved ones take the challenge?

The month of November we pray for

"To see God, to be similar to God: this is our hope."

And today, precisely on the day of the Saints and before the day for the dead, it is necessary to think a little about hope: this hope that accompanies us in life..."

There are moments of difficulty in life, but with hope the soul moves forward and looks toward that which awaits us"
